2017 SOFTBALL MEDIA GUIDE

ALABAMA ALL-AMERICANS

Three Alabama players earned All-America honors in 2016, giving the Crimson Tide at least one All-American every year since 1998. In total, 26 players have earned 52 honors over the program's 20-year history.

SUPER REGIONAL

Alabama is the only team in the country to appear in all 12 Super Regional rounds, defeating Washington last season in Tuscaloosa for its ninth series win in 12 years. Seven of those nine series wins have been two-game sweeps and the Tide has won eight of the nine rounds played in Tuscaloosa.

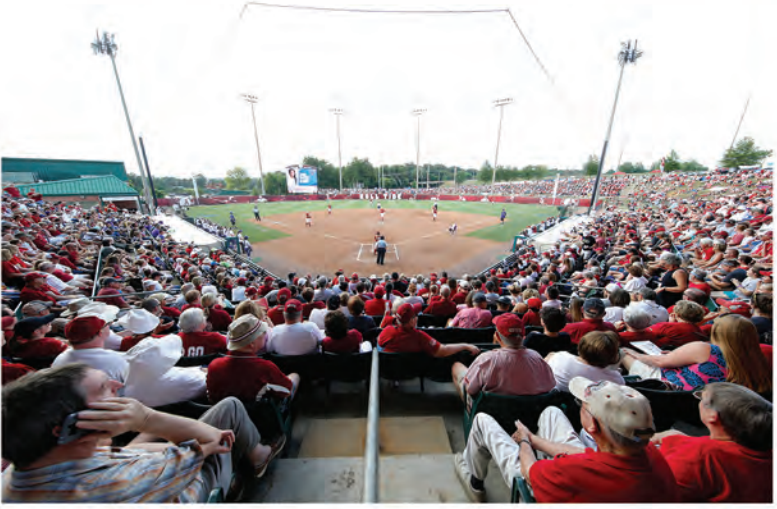

WORLD SERIES STREAK

Alabama made its 11th Women's College World Series appearance in 2016, its fourth trip in the last five years. The Tide's current streak of three-straight appearances in Oklahoma City is the longest such streak in program history.

STUDENT FIRST, ATHLETE SECOND

Alabama ranked No. 11 in the National Fastpitch Coaches Association's list of Division-I All-Academic teams for 2015- 16 year, posting a 3.547 team grade point average. This mark the highest of any of the 64 teams in last year's NCAA Tournament field.

PERENNIAL POSTSEASON POWER

The Crimson Tide has qualified for the NCAA Tournament in 18-straight seasons, a streak that stretches back all the way to 1999. With a sweep over its Regional opponents in 2016, Alabama stretched its Regional winning streak to 31 straight games, having not lost since the opening game of the 2007 postseason.

TIDE TOPS IN ATTENDANCE

Alabama again stood atop the national attendance rankings in college softball in 2016, welcoming 88,857 fans to Rhoads Stadium. During the regular season, the Tide averaged over 3,000 fans per game, becoming the first softball team in the NCAA to do so.

The Alabama Athletic Communications Office is located on the ground level of Coleman Coliseum in room 170.

MEDIA SERVICES/CREDENTIALS
Members of the media are supplied with up-to-date release packages that can be obtained on www.rolltide.com. The release contains updated statistics, season results and notes. Pregame notes and media guides are available before all home games at Rhoads Stadium. Coach Patrick Murphy and Alabama's players are available for interviews following games after a 10-minute cooling off period.

TELEPHONE SERVICES
The University of Alabama Softball Complex is equipped with several phone lines in the press box. Special requests for a private line should be made at least two weeks in advance of the game. The press box has wireless internet access and there are several internet lines available for use.

INTERVIEWS
All interviews must be arranged through Nathan Sheehan in the Communications Office. The softball team practices at Rhoads Stadium, located at the corner of Fifth Avenue and Campus Drive. Players and coaches are available prior to practice. Media availability for on-field interviews generally occurs once per week with dates and times sent through our email distribution list.

INTERNET
Information about University of Alabama Athletics can be found online at the official athletics department website, www.rolltide.com, where links to live stats, video and radio broadcasts of each game can be found.

RADIO
Every pitch of the 2017 season will be heard on the Crimson Tide Sports Network as Tom Canterbury returns for his third season as the voice of Alabama softball. Fans can listen locally in Tuscaloosa on Praise 93.3 FM with select games also available throughout the state on other CTSN affiliates.

SEC NETWORK +
Every Alabama home game and select SEC road games will be streamed online for free through the SEC Network's online platform, available at WatchESPN.com or on mobile devices via the WatchESPN app.

ALABAMA PRESIDENT DR. STUART R. BELL

The Board of Trustees of The University of Alabama System named Dr. Stuart R. Bell president of The University of Alabama on June 18, 2015.

A nearly 30-year veteran of higher education, Bell was previously executive vice president and provost at Louisiana State University, where he served as both the chief academic officer and the chief operating officer of LSU. These responsibilities at LSU included oversight of all academic, research and student programs and coordination of related fiscal operations.

"The University of Alabama is such a vibrant community," said Bell. "I'm excited about UA and its positive impact on our community and the nation, and I look forward to the even greater achievements that we will seek in working together."

"I'm honored by this selection and the confidence displayed in my abilities, and I look forward to learning and listening to others about our campus, our programs and the aspirations we have for this great university. Susan and I are thrilled to return to Tuscaloosa and are looking forward to renewing old friendships and creating new ones."

During Bell's tenure, LSU opened new facilities, including residence halls, and made additions to engineering and chemistry buildings. Student retention and success were emphasized, and recruitment efforts yielded the largest freshman class in LSU history. Online programs were also expanded, and the campus developed a new strategic plan for LSU's research and discovery efforts.

Before joining LSU, Bell served for 10 years as dean of the University of Kansas School of Engineering. During that time, he led an expansion of facilities and research, including efforts to establish multiple major research centers; increased student recruitment; and developed extensive experience in fundraising.

Bell previously served 16 years at The University of Alabama. He joined UA in 1986 as an assistant professor in the University's department of mechanical engineering. Nine years later, he was named department head, where he served until accepting the Kansas deanship in 2002.

With research interest in combustion engines, Bell has expertise in alternative fuels for engines, innovative engine designs and modeling of engine and engine processes. He founded and directed UA's Center for Advanced Vehicle Technologies, an interdisciplinary research center.

Bell, who was inducted as an Engineering Departmental Fellow by UA's department of mechanical engineering, was awarded the Society of Automotive Engineers' Ralph Teetor Award for Outstanding Contributions to Research and Teaching in 1988.

He was presented the T. Morris Hackney Faculty Leadership Award for the UA College of Engineering in 2001, and, in 2005, he received the Richard S. Woodbury Award from the American Society of Mechanical Engineers.

An Abilene, Texas, native, Bell earned a nuclear engineering degree from Texas A&M University in 1979. He earned his master's and doctorate degrees in mechanical engineering from Texas A&M in 1981 and 1986, respectively.

He and his wife, Susan, have three adult children, Stuart, Stacy — a UA graduate — and Stephen, and one granddaughter.

ON YOUR CAMPUS...

TOP RANKED ON YOUR CAMPUS...

Enrollment at The University of Alabama reached a record high of 37,665 for fall 2016. The entering freshman class, at 7,559 students, is the largest and best qualified in UA history. More than 40 percent of UA's 7,559-member freshman class scored 30 or higher on the ACT, up from last year's record 36 percent.

The University of Alabama is a leader among public universities nationwide in the enrollment of National Merit Scholars with more than 600 currently enrolled.

Ranked among the top 50 public universities in the nation in U.S. News and World Report's annual college rankings for more than a decade, UA ranked 46th among public universities in the 2017 rankings. UA's latest college rankings include:

- The School of Law is ranked 28th among all law schools in the nation (10th among public universities), spring 2016.
- The School of Library and Information Studies is ranked 18th nationally (15th among public universities) in the latest rankings for library schools, spring 2013

University of Alabama students continue to win prestigious national awards. Forty-seven UA students have been named Goldwater Scholars, including two in 2016. The University of Alabama has produced a total of 15 Rhodes Scholars, 16 Truman Scholars, 32 Hollings Scholars and six Boren Scholars.

Thirty UA faculty have received NSF CAREER Awards, the nation's most prestigious recognition of top-performing young scientists, in disciplines ranging from nanoscience and engineering to biological sciences.

Dr. Samantha Hansen, UA associate professor of geological sciences, is one of many faculty recognized nationally for research. Hansen is one of 102 scientists who received the 2014 Presidential Early Career Award for Scientists and Engineers, the highest honor bestowed by the U.S. government on science and engineering professionals in the early stages of their independent research careers.

Seven University of Alabama alumni and graduate students have won Fulbright awards for 2016-17. Two UA graduate students received Fulbright research awards. Five UA graduates won awards as teaching assistants to research and teach abroad.

U.S. News and World Report ranks The University of Alabama's Manderson Online Business Master's programs 16th in the nation. The rankings are based on level of accreditation, faculty credentials, admissions selectivity, reputation for excellence among peer institutions and academic and career support services offered to students.

Public Accounting Report's 2016 rankings place UA's Culverhouse School of Accountancy's undergraduate and master's programs 8th and its doctoral program 9th.

PRWeek Magazine has recognized the public relations program in The University of Alabama's College of Communication and Information Sciences as one of the top five programs in the nation six times.

BILL BATTLE

DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS

William R. "Bill" Battle recently completed his third year as Director of Athletics at The University of Alabama. Since taking the job on March 22, 2013, (succeeding the late Mal Moore, who had held the position since November 1999), Battle has not only maintained Alabama's unparalleled athletics success, but also has placed increased focus on the primary mission of Alabama Athletics: to recruit and develop student-athletes to compete at the highest levels in intercollegiate athletics, to educate and prepare student-athletes to compete at the highest levels in life after graduation, and to accomplish both with honor and integrity.

Battle took the job as Director of Athletics at Alabama after a career as a college football coach and entrepreneur that was consistently hallmarked by innovation and foresight. During Battle's tenure, Alabama has produced two NCAA team national championships (men's golf in 2014 and football in 2015); seven SEC team championships in five different sports (two in football, two in gymnastics, one in men's golf, softball and women's tennis); 15 NCAA individual champions (seven in 2013-14, six in 2014-15, and two at this writing in 2015-16); 27 NCAA Elite Award winners (13 in 2013-14, 14 in 2014-15); 26 Academic All-Americans (13 in 2013-14, 12 in 2014-15, and 1 thus far in 2015-16 – leading the nation in that category in both 2013-14 and 2014-15); and 16 NCAA Postgraduate Scholarship awardees (a national-leading 7 in 2013-14 and 7 in 2014-15, and 2 thus far in 2015-16).

Battle's vision has impacted the Alabama Athletics Department in numerous ways over the last three years, particularly in revitalized fundraising efforts that directly enhance the daily experience of every Crimson Tide student-athlete. Battle spearheaded the redevelopment of Alabama's historic baseball facility, Sewell-Thomas Stadium, transforming an aging facility into one of the nation's most dynamic venues when the stadium opened in February, 2016. He also has led the drive for numerous other facility and departmental improvements, including a new rowing facility and plans for a new aquatics facility. He has increased outreach efforts to keep students, fans, faculty, staff and stakeholders abreast of what is happening in Alabama Athletics.

A native of Birmingham, Ala., Battle attended The University of Alabama on a football scholarship and enjoyed a successful playing career as a three-year starter at end for the Crimson Tide under legendary head coach Paul "Bear" Bryant from 1960-62. Battle was a member of Bryant's first national championship team at Alabama in 1961, and was a three-year starter. Generally regarded as the team's best end throughout his playing career, Battle came to Tuscaloosa after starring in three sports at Birmingham's West End High School.

An excellent student, Battle earned a bachelor's degree in Biology (minor in Psychology) from The University of Alabama in 1963 and a master's degree in Education from The University of Oklahoma in 1964. He was an Academic All-SEC selection as a senior in 1962 and was selected to play in the Senior Bowl all-star game in Mobile, Ala., in January of 1963. He was named first team tight end and second team defensive end on The University of Alabama All Decade Team of the 1960s. Alabama won three national championships in the decade (1961, 1964 and 1965).

Battle entered the coaching profession as a graduate assistant at The University of Oklahoma in 1963 under famed head coach Bud Wilkinson. In 1964 and 1965, he served as an assistant coach at the United States Military Academy while serving a two-year military tour. In 1966, he moved on to the University of Tennessee, where he served as an assistant coach under head coach Doug Dickey for four seasons (1966-69) until he was named head coach of the Volunteers in 1970. When he was named head coach, Battle was the youngest head coach in college football at the age of 28.

During his seven-year tenure as head coach (1970-76), Battle's teams went 59-22-2, finished three seasons ranked in the nation's top 10 among five top-20 finishes and won four out of five bowl games. Battle's Tennessee teams won 11 games once (1970) and at least 10 games in three different seasons (1970, 1971 and 1972). His first Tennessee team finished the season ranked fourth in both national polls. His 1971 team finished ranked ninth in both national polls and the 1972 Tennessee squad finished ranked eighth by the Associated Press and 11th in the coaches' poll.

Battle embarked on a career in the private sector after his coaching career ended. He held various positions within Circle S Industries in Selma, Ala., and served as president of two different companies, as well as vice chairman of the Circle S Holding Company Board. During his six years at Circle S, the organization grew from two companies earning $12 million in annual sales to 10 companies earning $60 million.

Battle founded The Collegiate Licensing Company (CLC) in 1981, and served as president and Chief Executive Officer (CEO) until 2002. He also served as chairman of the board of Licensing Partners International (LPI), which was created in 2001 to represent the licensing interests of non-collegiate sports properties, as well as corporate and entertainment properties. The companies were sold to IMG in 2007, but he continued as chairman of CLC and consultant to IMG until March of 2013 when he was called back to Alabama.

A 1981 inductee into the Alabama Sports Hall of Fame, Battle was inducted as the first member of the charter class of the National Collegiate Licensing Association Hall of Fame in 2000. He was the recipient of the 2005 Paul W. Bryant Alumni Athlete Award at The University of Alabama and was inducted into the International Licensing Industry Merchandisers' Association (LIMA) Hall of Fame in 2008.

Battle received a National Football Foundation award in December 2008 for Outstanding Contributions to Amateur Football. In June 2010, he was inducted into the National Association of Collegiate Marketing Administrators' (NACMA) Hall of Fame. He was inducted into the Tennessee Sports Hall of Fame, receiving its Lifetime Achievement Award in 2011. He is slated to be inducted into the Sporting Goods Industry Hall of Fame in May of 2016. He currently serves on the boards of the Bryant-Jordan Student-Athlete Foundation, The University of Alabama A-Club Educational & Charitable Foundation, the Crimson Tide Foundation, and the National Football Foundation.

Bill and his wife, Mary, are part of UAB's Stem Cell Institute Board and are both active in their support of UAB's Department of Rheumatology. In their leisure time, the Battles enjoy life on their ranch in Georgia. Mary is an avid equestrian while Bill enjoys working on various projects around the ranch.

ON YOUR CAMPUS...

From the architecture to the landscaping, The University of Alabama campus is one of the most beautiful places in the state of Alabama. With more than 200 academic majors, outstanding honors programs and a championship athletic tradition, UA offers a complete educational, cultural and social experience. Our undergraduate, graduate and professional programs give students the opportunity to interact with nationally ranked faculty and our distance learning programs offer learning that fits your life.

Life on the UA campus is defined by opportunities. Students who want to get involved can join one of more than 350 student organizations, help plan concerts and speaker series, volunteer in the community, participate in intramural teams or run for student government.

Students, faculty, staff and visitors can take advantage of a rich and varied schedule of musical, dance and theatre performances, art galleries and exhibitions, lectures and readings by writers, poets and experts on every topic imaginable. UA's fine museums house countless historical artifacts and offer hands-on exploration opportunities.

The Ferguson Center, UA's student union, was renovated and expanded in 2014, providing more space for student activities and a larger food court and Supply Store. The new Fresh Food Company as well as Lakeside and Burke dining halls offer a wide variety of food service options.

The Student Recreation Center offers first-class recreation facilities to students, faculty and staff. It includes two multi-use gyms, nine multi-purpose courts, weight machines, 1/8-mile jogging track, extensive cardio area, locker rooms, indoor swimming pool, dry and steam saunas, 12 lighted tennis courts, four aerobics rooms, eight racquetball courts and a squash court—together encompassing more than 200,000 square feet. The facility's outdoor aquatic area features a lazy river, lap swim, large water-park-type slide and lots of deck space. An additional recreation and student center is conveniently located for residential students between the Presidential 1 and II residence halls.

Whatever your interests, you will find a group, an organization, an activity or a program that will appeal to you at UA.

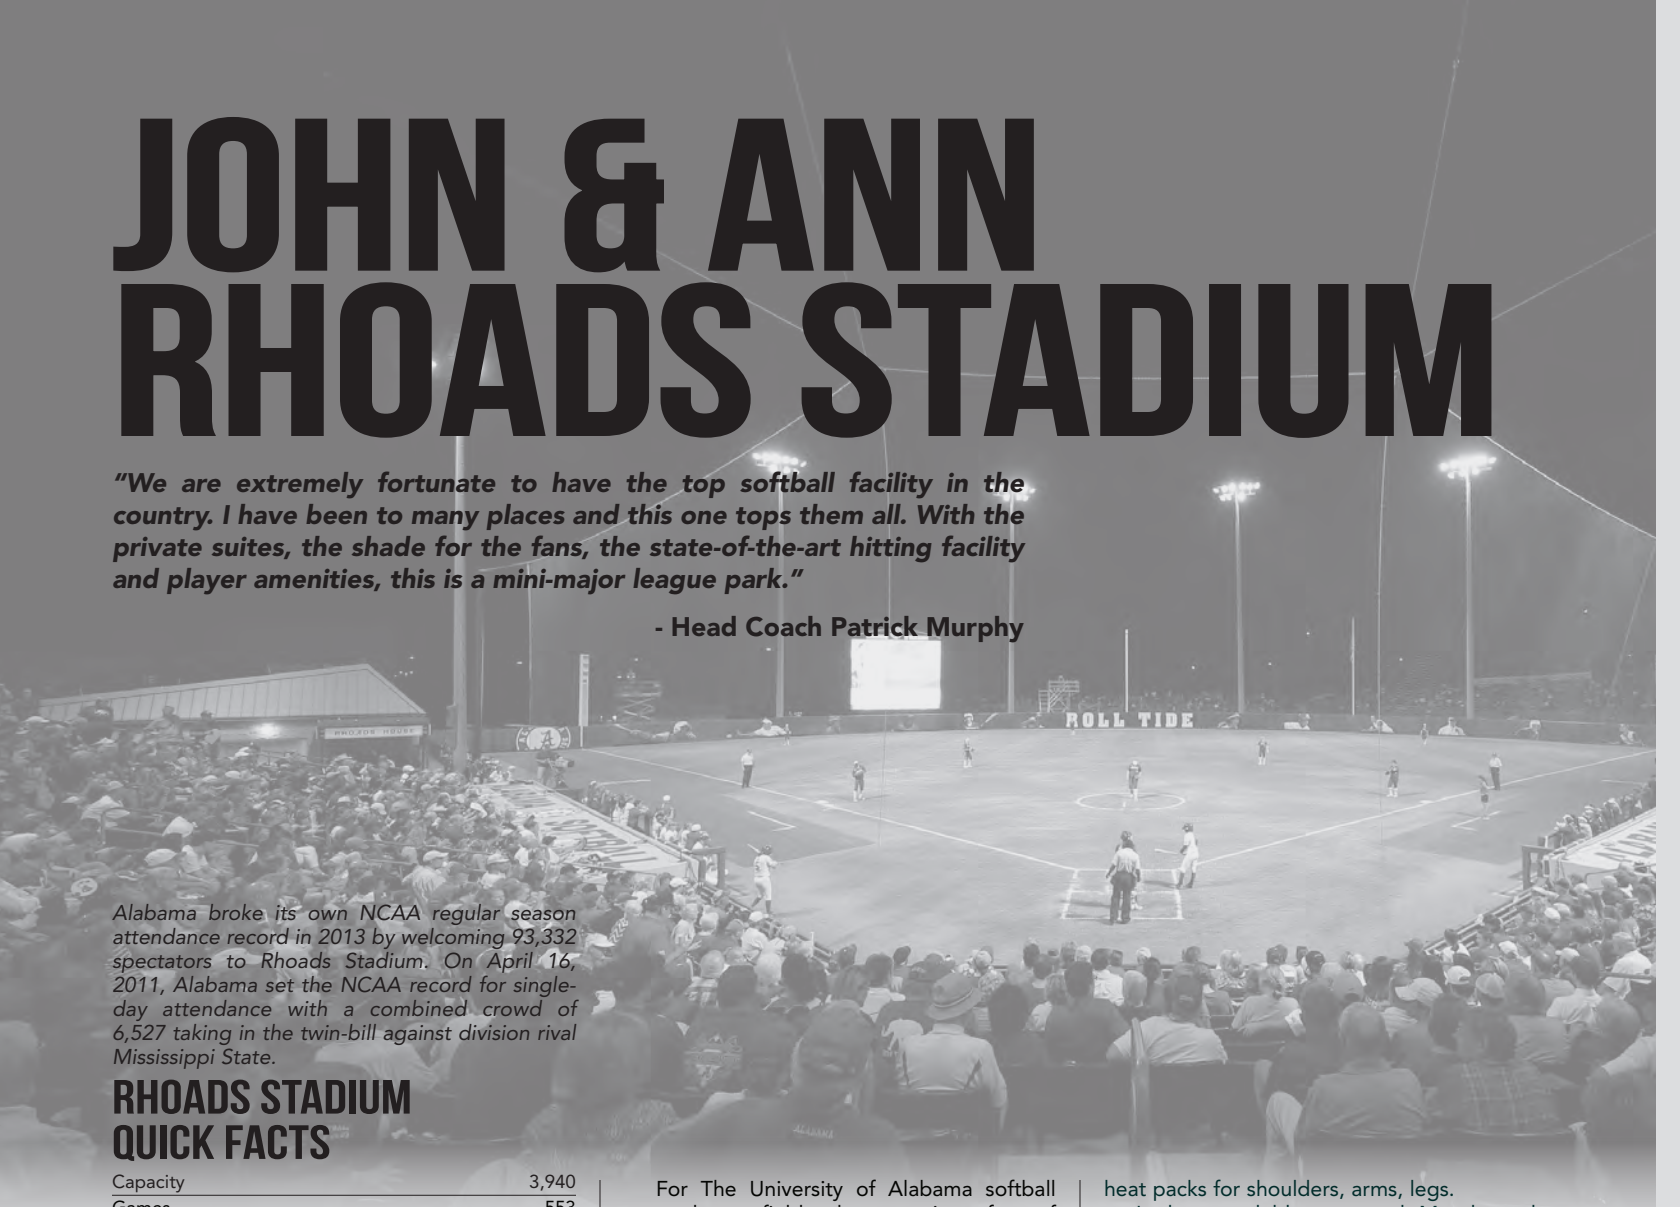

JOHN & ANN RHOADS STADIUM

"We are extremely fortunate to have the top softball facility in the country. I have been to many places and this one tops them all. With the private suites, the shade for the fans, the state-of-the-art hitting facility and player amenities, this is a mini-major league park."

- Head Coach Patrick Murphy

Alabama broke its own NCAA regular season attendance record in 2013 by welcoming 93,332 spectators to Rhoads Stadium. On April 16, 2011, Alabama set the NCAA record for single-day attendance with a combined crowd of 6,527 taking in the twin-bill against division rival Mississippi State.

For The University of Alabama softball team, home field advantage is a fact of life. After walking through the $4.2 million stadium and clubhouse, it is easy to see how the Crimson Tide posted a 27-4 home record in 2016 and owns an overall 477-76 (.863) record while playing in the stadium.

Additions to the already pristine complex were made during the 2009 season and helped boost the total attendance of the stadium to more than 3,000. Tier seating was added in right field along with a standing-room concourse area that includes tables and drink rails. For the 2012 season, tier seating was added in center field and two new scoreboards were implemented to accommodate the fans in the Brickyard.

Construction on a new indoor practice facility, field house and expansion to the clubhouse began after the completion of the 2010 season. The state-of-the-art facility, which was completed before first pitch of the 2011 season, includes a lobby, players lounge, locker room, video room, an expanded training room and coaches offices.

In 2016, a new LCD video board was added, the largest such display in the SEC. A new sound system was also installed on the concourse and in the brickyard.

For pre-game and post-game treatment, the athletic training staff has a fully equipped training room at their disposal, stocked with two training tables, an ice machine, a mini-whirlpool and a hydroculator used to hold heat packs for shoulders, arms, legs.

In the new clubhouse, coach Murphy and his staff can utilize a state-of-the-art video suite for team meetings and film breakdown.

For the fans there are 500 chairback seats, the new tier seating in right and center field, 1,095 bleacher back seats and a large overhang that protects from inclement weather.

There are two ticket booths to accommodate the rush of fans and a large concession stand sitting directly behind the pressbox. Two private luxury suites sit on both sides of the state-of-the-art pressbox that includes home and visitor radio booths, a television booth, a booth for the sound and video system, and a media room large enough to hold press conferences during tournaments.

Rhoads Stadium has proven to be one of the finest places to watch softball in the nation and the attendance numbers support that claim. Alabama is the only school in the country to sell out its tickets before the season has even started and the Crimson Tide has accomplished that feat six times. In 2016, Alabama became the first program in NCAA history to average over 3,000 fans during the regular season

Attendance has topped the 90,000 mark in three of the last five years, including 91,541 in 2012, 93,332 in 2013 and 90,021 in 2015.

GREAT MOMENTS IN RHOADS STADIUM HISTORY

FEBRUARY 23, 2000 - OPENING NIGHT

With an introduction that included fireworks and a capacity crowd, the Alabama Softball Complex officially opened against in-state foe UAB. The Blazers took the early lead, but behind a six-run sixth inning the Crimson Tide earned a 7-1 win. All-American Shelley Laird earned the first win in the new circle and senior Nicki McKee belted the first home run. Kelly Kretschman and Ginger Jones collected two hits apiece while Kristi Frenier went deep and drove in three runs. First pitch was at 7:04 p.m. and 1,501 fans took in a new era of Alabama softball.

MARCH 13, 2004 - DRAMATIC COMEBACK

Against arguably the toughest southpaw to toe the rubber, the Tide welcomed Monica Abbott and the Tennessee Lady Volunteers. Stephanie VanBrakle delivered with her arm first, then with her bat later, as she helped Alabama post a doubleheader sweep. VanBrakle allowed three hits and struck out 11 batters en route to the win. Then with Alabama trailing, 3-1, with two on and two out in the bottom of the seventh, VanBrakle hit a walk-off home run that bounced off the top of the right field fence for the final 4-3 margin.

MAY 23, 2009 - DUNNE NO-HITS JSU TWICE

NCAA history was made and, in doing so, it propelled Alabama to its sixth Women's College World Series. Crimson Tide ace Kelsi Dunne threw her second no-hitter in two days at the Tuscaloosa Super Regional to help lead Alabama to a pair of 9-0 wins over Jacksonville State on ESPN. Dunne struck out seven and walked only one in each of the two contests to tie an NCAA record for consecutive no-hitters in NCAA postseason play. Seniors Kelley Montalvo and Kellie Eubanks belted home runs to provide all the offense Dunne would need.

MAY 27, 2011 - TIDE RALLIES TO GO TO WCWS

Alabama was in search of its seventh trip to the Women's College World Series. Hosting Stanford, the Tide's back was against the wall after losing the first game of the Tuscaloosa Super Regional. Facing elimination, Alabama run-ruled the Cardinal, 10-0, to start the day and then fought its way to a thrilling 1-0 win in the deciding game. A triple down the line off the bat of Cassie Reilly-Boccia brought Jaclyn Traina all the way home from first for the game-winning run. Traina later shut the door in the seventh inning to send the Tide to Oklahoma City.

MAY 23, 2014 - 12-INNING MARATHON

Alabama's first game of the 2014 Tuscaloosa Super Regional against Nebraska was the longest home game in Alabama history, stretching 12 innings and nearly four-and-a-half hours. The Huskers held the lead for the majority of regulation while the Tide gradually chipped away as the game went on, trailing 5-4 in the seventh inning. Freshman Marisa Runyon led off the seventh with a solo home run to tie the game and eventually send it to extra innings. The teams battled back-and-forth for five more innings, with fellow freshman Peyton Grantham eventually slugging the game-winning home run in the bottom of the 12th inning at 12:27 a.m.

MAY 23, 2015 - HOME RUNYON

After falling in game one to Oklahoma in the 2015 Super Regional round, Alabama rallied to win game two and force a deciding game three. The Tide took the first lead of the game but a pair of home runs by Sooner slugger Lauren Chamberlain put the visitors on top, 3-1, heading into the bottom of the sixth. Marisa Runyon, who was hitless over her previous 13 at-bats, came to the plate with the bases loaded and sent the first pitch she saw into the right field stands to give Alabama a 5-3 lead. Alexis Osorio finished it out in the circle with a 1-2-3 top of the seventh to punch Alabama's 10th ticket to the Women's College World Series.

Over the years the Alabama softball program has produced 26 NFCA All-American players.

KELLY KRETSCHMAN
5-6 / OUTFIELD / INDIAN HARBOUR BEACH, FLA.

1998 - 99 - NFCA SECOND TEAM | 2000 - 01 - NFCA FIRST TEAM

One of the greatest players to put on a Crimson Tide uniform, Kelly Kretschman was the first four-time NFCA All-American in program history. The former Olympic gold medalist holds numerous records in the Alabama annals, including hits, doubles and runs to name of few. The Indian Harbour Beach, Fla., native led Alabama to its first Women's College World Series appearance in 2000. She held the UA single-season hitting percentage record for over a decade and still holds the single-season home run record with 25.

5-8 / CATCHER / SHREVEPORT, LA.

1999 - NFCA THIRD TEAM
Catcher Carrie Moreman was a member of the first Crimson Tide softball team and thus played three seasons due to graduation. In her senior campaign Moreman earned All-America honors for her prowess at the plate and behind it. She was second on the team to fellow All-American Kelly Kretschman in batting average in 1999 and paced the squad with nine home runs.

SHELLEY LAIRD
5-10 / PITCHER / SPRING, TEXAS

2000 - NFCA THIRD TEAM | 2001 - NFCA SECOND TEAM
Right-handed hurler Shelley Laird was the first of a long line of All-America caliber pitchers to set foot in the circle for Alabama head coach Patrick Murphy. Laird earned back-to-back All-America honors after posting two straight 30-win seasons. The Spring, Texas, native holds the school record in wins, complete games and shutouts to name a few. She held the single season record with 38 wins for 12 years and is the only Tide pitcher with two 30-win seasons.

GINGER JONES
5-10 / INFIELD / NORTHPORT, ALA.

2000 - NFCA FIRST TEAM
Homegrown talent Ginger Jones joined teammates Kelly Kretschman and Shelley Laird as All-America selections in 2000. Jones and Kretschman garnered the distinction as the initial first-team honorees in program history. The duo helped lead Alabama to a school record 66 wins in 2000. Jones ranks seventh all-time in the Alabama annals with 39 career home runs, while her 17 home runs in 2000 are the sixth most in a single season in school history. In that same season she drove in 69 runs which ranks fifth all-time.

SUZANNE OLCOTT
5-3 / INFIELD / BIRMINGHAM, ALA.

2001 - NFCA THIRD TEAM
Second baseman Suzanne Olcott joined teammates Kelly Kretschman, Jackie McClain and Shelley Laird as the first quartet of Alabama All-Americans. The four All-American honorees were the most in a single season until 2008. Olcott had a career year in 2001 and was rewarded for her efforts. She was third on the team with a .335 average and second on the squad with 51 runs and 18 stolen bases. Her six triples rank seventh in the Alabama record book.

JACKIE MCCLAIN
5-10 / UTILITY / SODDY DAISY, TENN.

2001-03 - NFCA SECOND TEAM | 2004 - NFCA THIRD TEAM
The left-handed-hitting Jackie McClain became the second player in program history to be named an All-American in four straight seasons. The Soddy Daisy, Tenn., native paced Alabama in hitting her junior and senior seasons after breaking onto the scene as a freshman at a .417 clip. McClain's .484 career on-base percentage ranks fifth all-time at Alabama and she also ranks sixth all-time in batting average and ninth in slugging percentage.

ALL-AMERICANS

ASHLEY COURTNEY
5-7 / OUTFIELD / VERO BEACH, FLA.

2002 - NFCA FIRST TEAM | 2005 - NFCA SECOND TEAM

Ashley Courtney jumped onto the national scene as a freshman and never looked back, as she earned All-America accolades as a rookie and as a senior. Courtney helped guide the Crimson Tide to two Women's College World Series berths - the second and third appearances for Alabama in Oklahoma City. She became the third player in Alabama history at the time to hit over .400 in a season. The Vero Beach, Fla., native is tied for the career record at Alabama with 16 triples. She ranks fourth all-time at the Capstone in runs and hits and holds the eighth-best career batting average. Courtney paced the team in batting average as a freshman and as a senior.

STEPHANIE VANBRAKLE
5-9 / PITCHER / CHAMBERSBURG, PA.

2005-06 - NFCA SECOND TEAM

A threat in the circle and in the batters box Stephanie VanBrakle was the first two-way All-American to suit up for the Crimson Tide. Her power arm combined with a power bat helped lead Alabama to its first ever Southeastern Conference title in 2006. VanBrakle struck out 1,113 batters during her career to set the Alabama record for five years. Her 345 punchouts in 2006 are the third most at Alabama in a single season.

BRITTANY ROGERS
5-6 / OUTFIELD / DACULA, GA.

2006 - NFCA THIRD TEAM | 2007 & 2009 - NFCA SECOND TEAM
2008 - NFCA FIRST TEAM

One of five players in Alabama history to be named an All-American in four straight seasons, the fleet-footed Brittany Rogers electrified the diamond with her speed. Rogers became the second player in school history to hit over .400 in three different seasons. The Dacula, Ga., native became the fourth player in Southeastern Conference history and the second at Alabama to tally over 300 hits, 200 runs and 100 stolen bases. Rogers holds the Alabama record for stolen bases with 198 and ranks third all-time with 343 hits and 256 runs while her .417 career batting average ranks fourth.

CHRISSY OWENS
6-0 / PITCHER / MIAMI, FLA.

2007 - NFCA THIRD TEAM

Right-handed fireballer Chrissy Owens became the third All-America pitcher under head coach Patrick Murphy. Oddly, her All-America campaign in 2007 was not her best. In 2006, Owens was nearly unhittable, leading the Crimson Tide to its first ever Southeastern Conference championship. The Miami native holds the two lowest ERAs in school history, posting a 0.88 mark in 2006 and a 1.33 ledger in 2005. Her 1.49 career ERA is the lowest in school history and her 67 wins ranks fifth all-time. On top of baffling teams from the start, Owens also holds the career mark at the Capstone in saves with 21. Her 11 saves in 2005 are the most in a season in Alabama history.

LAUREN PARKER
5-4 / INFIELD / PORT NECHES, TEXAS

2007 - NFCA FIRST TEAM

A transfer from Baylor, Lauren Parker had no problems adjusting to her new surroundings as she immediately made an impact en route to earning first team All-America honors. Parker jumped onto the scene and hit .457, the fifth highest season clip in school history. While her .368 career batting average ranks fifth, Parker was equally as good with her glove. The Port Neches, Texas, native teamed up with fellow senior Kellie Eubanks to set an NCAA record by turning five double plays against Texas in the 2009 Tuscaloosa Regional. Known as a free-swinger, Parker was deceptively tough to strike out as she fanned 10 or fewer times in each of her three seasons at the Capstone.

KELLEY MONTALVO
5-0 / INFIELD / MIAMI, FLA.

2008 - NFCA FIRST TEAM

One of the greatest defensive players to put on a Crimson Tide uniform and arguably the best defensive third baseman in the country during her tenure at the Capstone, Kelley Montalvo earned All-America honors in 2008. During that 2008 campaign when she helped lead Alabama to its longest stay at the Women's College World Series, Montalvo posted career highs in batting average, hits and RBI. She ranks in the top 10 in the Alabama record books in doubles (4th, 51), walks (6th, 131), on base percentage (7th, .469), runs (9th, 174) and slugging percentage (10th .579). Her 52 walks in 2009 set an Alabama individual season record and ranked 10th in the country. Defensively, Montalvo garnered SEC All-Defensive Team accolades in 2008 and 2009.

CHARLOTTE MORGAN
5-10 / PITCHER/INFIELD / MORENO VALLEY, CALIF.

2008-09 - NFCA FIRST TEAM | 2010 - NFCA SECOND TEAM

One of the best two-way-players in the country year-in and year-out, Charlotte Morgan etched her name in the record books. The first in program history to earn SEC Player of the Year honors twice, Morgan broke the SEC career RBI record with 264 and was near the top in every batting record. Her 79 RBIs as a sophomore remained an Alabama single season record for seven years.

KELSI DUNNE
6-0 / PITCHER / PORT ORANGE, FLA.

2008 & 2010 - NFCA THIRD TEAM | 2009 & 2011 - NFCA FIRST TEAM

Making an immediate impact in the circle, Florida native Kelsi Dunne backed up her National High School Player of the Year accolades by becoming one of the top collegiate hurlers. Dunne capped off her career by being named the Southeastern Conference Pitcher of the Year as a junior and a senior. She shattered numerous Alabama pitching records such as lowest opponent batting average (.165), most strikeouts per seven innings (9.82) and most strikeouts (1,219). Dunne was unhittable in the circle, tossing nine no-hitters, including two straight against Jacksonville State to advance the Tide to the WCWS in 2009.

KAYLA BRAUD
5-6 / OUTFIELD / EUGENE, ORE.

2010 - NFCA SECOND TEAM | 2011 & 2013 NFCA FIRST TEAM

Kayla Braud started her career in the same way she started many games as the team's leadoff hitter: with a bang. Her freshman campaign proved to be one of the best in NCAA history, helping earn her SEC Freshman of the Year honors while batting a school-record .505 average. She continued to be a model of consistency, earning First Team All-America honors in two of her last three seasons. She was always a threat to get on base, finishing with a .438 career average which is the highest four-year total in program history. She was equally as dangerous on the basepaths, accumulating 182 stolen bases over her career, which ranks second at Alabama.

WHITNEY LARSEN
5-9 / UTILITY / VESTAVIA HILLS, ALA.

2011 - NFCA SECOND TEAM

A player who showed steady improvement every season, Whitney Larsen turned in a stellar senior campaign as she put together a career year en route to her first All-America selection. Larsen is regarded as one of the best captains inprogram history, leading the team to the semifinals of the 2011 Women's College World Series. Larsen proved to be a versatile player for head coach Patrick Murphy, finding significant time in the outfield and at second base before finding a home at shortstop - a position she solidified for two seasons. Quietly, Larsen played her way into the record books. Her 196 RBIs rank third all-time at the Capstone on the strength of 65 RBI as a senior, which marks the fourth-best season output in school history. She also ranks fifth in home runs (48), and seventh in slugging percentage (.601).

JACLYN TRAINA
5-11 / PITCHER/DP / NAPLES, FLA.

2011-12, 2014 - NFCA FIRST TEAM | 2013 - NFCA THIRD TEAM

Traina is Alabama's fifth four-time All-American, though she was the first to earn three First Team honors. In her senior season, the Naples, Fla., native earned her 100th career win, becoming just the third player in Alabama history and the eighth in SEC history to hit the milestone. More importantly than the records and awards earned over her career, Traina's enduring legacy to Alabama fans will be her role in guiding the team to its first-ever national championship during her sophomore season. Traina led the country in 2012 with 42 wins and struck out 361 batters. She started every game for the Crimson Tide in its eighth WCWS and was named the Most Outstanding Player after securing five wins and batting .400 in Oklahoma City.

JENNIFER FENTON
5-4 / CENTER FIELD / KENNESAW, GA.

2012 - NFCA THIRD TEAM

A versatile player who put together a complete season in 2012, Jennifer Fenton helped lead the Crimson Tide to its first national championship. Fenton excelled at all aspects of the game, hitting for power, playing stellar defense and showcasing her speed. The Kennesaw, Ga., native broke the NCAA record for consecutive stolen base record without getting thrown out by swiping 74 straight. She finished her career with 133 thefts, tied for third all-time in the Alabama annals. Most impressively, those 133 stolen bases came on only 138 attempts for a career stolen base percentage of .964. She finished tied for fifth all-time at the Capstone with 202 runs scored and came through in big situations by being named to the SEC all-tournament team three years in a row. Fenton was named to the WCWS all-tournament team and capped her career by being named the SEC Co-Scholar Athlete of the Year.

AMANDA LOCKE
5-11 / UTILITY / MESQUITE, TEXAS

2012 - NFCA SECOND TEAM

Amanda Locke proved to be one of the most feared power hitters in college softball over the course of her career. The Mesquite, Texas, native averaged a home run every 10 at-bats to finish with 54 on her career for third all-time at Alabama. Her .645 career slugging percentage ranks fourth all-time as well. In 2012 she also made a difference in the circle, leading the Tide to its third consecutive SEC Championship.

KAILA HUNT
5-5 / INFIELD / EVANS, GA.

2012-13 - NFCA SECOND TEAM

Kaila Hunt will be remembered as one of the most prolific power hitters in Alabama history. In a breakout sophomore campaign in 2012, the Evans, Ga., native powered the Tide to its first national championship by hitting 21 home runs and driving in 77. She backed up her strong sophomore season with another stellar showing in her junior year, leading the team with 15 home runs and 60 RBI. In her senior season, she became just the second player in Alabama history to surpass 200 career RBI and finished with 58 career home runs, tying her for second in school history. In addition to her numerous All-America and All-SEC accolades, she was a three-time Academic All-SEC honoree (2012-2014), two-time Academic All-American (2013-2014) and finished runner-up for the Senior CLASS Award in 2014.

HAYLIE MCCLENEY
5-4 / OUTFIELD / MORRIS, ALA.

2013 - NFCA SECOND TEAM | 2014-16 - NFCA FIRST TEAM

Haylie McCleney burst on the scene as a freshman in 2013 with a .465 average, driving in 41 RBIs and swiping 30 bases to earn Second Team All-America honors. She proved her debut season was no fluke with three-straight First Team All America nods in her remaining three seasons to become the sixth four-time All-American in program history and just the second to earn three FIrst Team accolades. Ultimately, McCleney finished her Crimson Tide career as the program's all-time leader in batting average, on base percentage, walks and triples along with top-five marks in nine other categories. She was equally succesful off the field, twice being named the CoSIDA Academic All-American of the Year for softball, just the award's third back-to-back winner, as well as being named the 2016 SEC H. Boyd McWhorter Female Scholar- Athlete of the Year, Senior CLASS award winner and NCAA Top 10 honoree.

ALEXIS OSORIO
5-8 / PITCHER / RIVERSIDE, CALIF.

2015 - NFCA SECOND TEAM
Alexis Osorio quickly earned a reputation as one of the premiere pitchers in the country during her 2015 freshman season. She was named the SEC Freshman of the Year, the Tide's first since Kayla Braud in 2010, and was a top three finalist for the NFCA Freshman of the Year Award. She had 15 wins against top 25 opponents, owning a 0.74 ERA with 110 strikeouts in those 15 wins. In conference-only games, she led the SEC in ERA (1.60), opposing batting average (.186), strikeouts (109) and wins (10).

MARISA RUNYON
5-10 / INFIELD / MYRTLE BEACH, S.C.

2015 - NFCA THIRD TEAM
Marisa Runyon showed flashes of power during her freshman season but truly broke through as a sophomore in 2015, earning the moniker "Home Runyon" for her prodigious power at the plate. Thanks in large part to a scorching second half of the 2015 season, Runyon led the team with 19 home runs and set the Alabama single season RBI record with 80. She cemented her legacy with the Crimson Tide faithful on May 23, 2015 in game three of the NCAA Super Regional round against Oklahoma, breaking a 13 at-bat hitless streak with a first pitch go-ahead grand slam in the sixth inning to push Alabama ahead, 5-3, and eventually punch its 10th ticket to the Women's College World Series.

DEMI TURNER
5-4 / INFIELD / HUNTSVILLE, TEXAS

2015 - NFCA THIRD TEAM
Demi Turner proved an incredibly versatile hitter as a freshman in 2015, using a combination of speed and power to frustrate opposing pitchers. She led the team with 82 hits, including 26 multi-hit games. She earned at least one hit in over 74 percent of the games she appeared in, going hitless in only 16 of her 62 games played. She also led the team with 11 sacrifice bunts and five triples, the latter of which ranks fourth in single-season history at Alabama.

2016 - NFCA SECOND TEAM
Leona Lafaele capped her four-year Crimson Tide career with a stellar senior season, powering her way to Second Team All-America honors with a team-leading 16 home runs and 63 RBIs. The 16 home runs was the highest total of her career, nearly as many as her previous three seasons combined, and ranks ninth all-time at Alabama. Twelve of her 16 home runs came in the final 21 games of the season, including seven over a streak of eight games from April 12-24. Her impact at the plate her senior year was equally as important as her impact in the field, where she anchored first base committing just one error over 287 chances.

SYDNEY LITTLEJOHN

2016 - NFCA SECOND TEAM
After two strong seasons in the circle, Sydney Littlejohn earned All-America recognition her junior year with a team-leading 23 wins. With two perfect games on her resume from her sophomore season, Littlejohn pitched in a combined no-hitter against UAB in February of her junior year, making her the fourth pitcher at Alabama to throw in at least three no-hit efforts. She later gained national attention with a pair of road wins over top-ranked Florida, just the Gators' second and third losses of the season, earning NFCA and ESPNw National Pitcher of the Week accolades. Her dominance continued throughout the rest of SEC play, leading the league with 12 conference wins. In addition to her prowess on the field, she earned Academic All-America accolades for her efforts in the classroom.

CHAMPIONSHIPS

Alabama has been one of the most consistently successful programs in the Southeastern Conference.

2012 NATIONAL CHAMPIONS

Alabama's first national title came in one of the most dramatic games in Women's College World Series history. After a three-hour rain delay prior to first pitch, Oklahoma raced out to a 3-0 lead before a second rain delay threatened to dampen any hopes of a comeback. When the rain subsided, a relaxed and renewed Crimson Tide team came out of the dugout, immediately taking the lead with four runs in the bottom of the fourth. Leading 5-3 with two outs in the bottom of the seventh, an Oklahoma home run brought the Sooners within one as USA Player of the Year Keilani Rickets came to the plate. The Tide's ace Jaclyn Traina struck her out looking for the final out, bringing the Tide its first-ever national championship.

18 STRAIGHT TRIPS TO AN NCAA REGIONAL

The Alabama softball team has made 18 straight appearances in NCAA postseason play. The streak started in 1999 under first-year head coach Patrick Murphy. Every season since his first at the helm of the Crimson Tide, Alabama has been a mainstay in the NCAAs. The 18-year streak includes 11 Women's College World Series appearances and hosting 15 NCAA regionals in Tuscaloosa. The Crimson Tide has hosted a regional every season since 2005 and have advanced to the WCWS eight times in that span. Postseason play has been kind to Alabama in Tuscaloosa, as the Tide has won the Regional round all but twice.

11 WOMEN'S COLLEGE WORLD SERIES BERTHS

Alabama has advanced to the Women's College World Series 11 times in its 20 years of playing softball, including seven of the past nine seasons. Alabama's 11 appearances have all come since 2000 and they have won at least one game at Hall of Fame Stadium eight times. The 2012 Crimson Tide became the first team in Southeastern Conference softball history to win a national championship. Ten different players have been selected to the WCWS All-Tournament team, including 2012 Most Outstanding Player Jaclyn Traina who earned All-Tournament honors again in 2014. All-American Kelly Kretschman was the first, earning the honor in 2000. Charlotte Morgan earned the honor in back-to-back seasons (2008-09) and was joined in 2009 by Brittany Rogers and Kelley Montalvo. Whitney Larsen finished off her career with a selection in 2011. The 2012 honorees included Traina, Kayla Braud, Jennifer Fenton and Amanda Locke. Joining Traina on the 2014 All-Tournament team was fellow senior Kaila Hunt.

12 NCAA SUPER REGIONAL APPEARANCES

Alabama is the only team in the nation to appear in 12 NCAA Super Regional rounds, qualifying every season since the NCAA introduced the round in 2005. The Tide have won nine of those 12 series, winning eight of the nine series that have been played in Tuscaloosa.

10 SOUTHEASTERN CONFERENCE TITLES

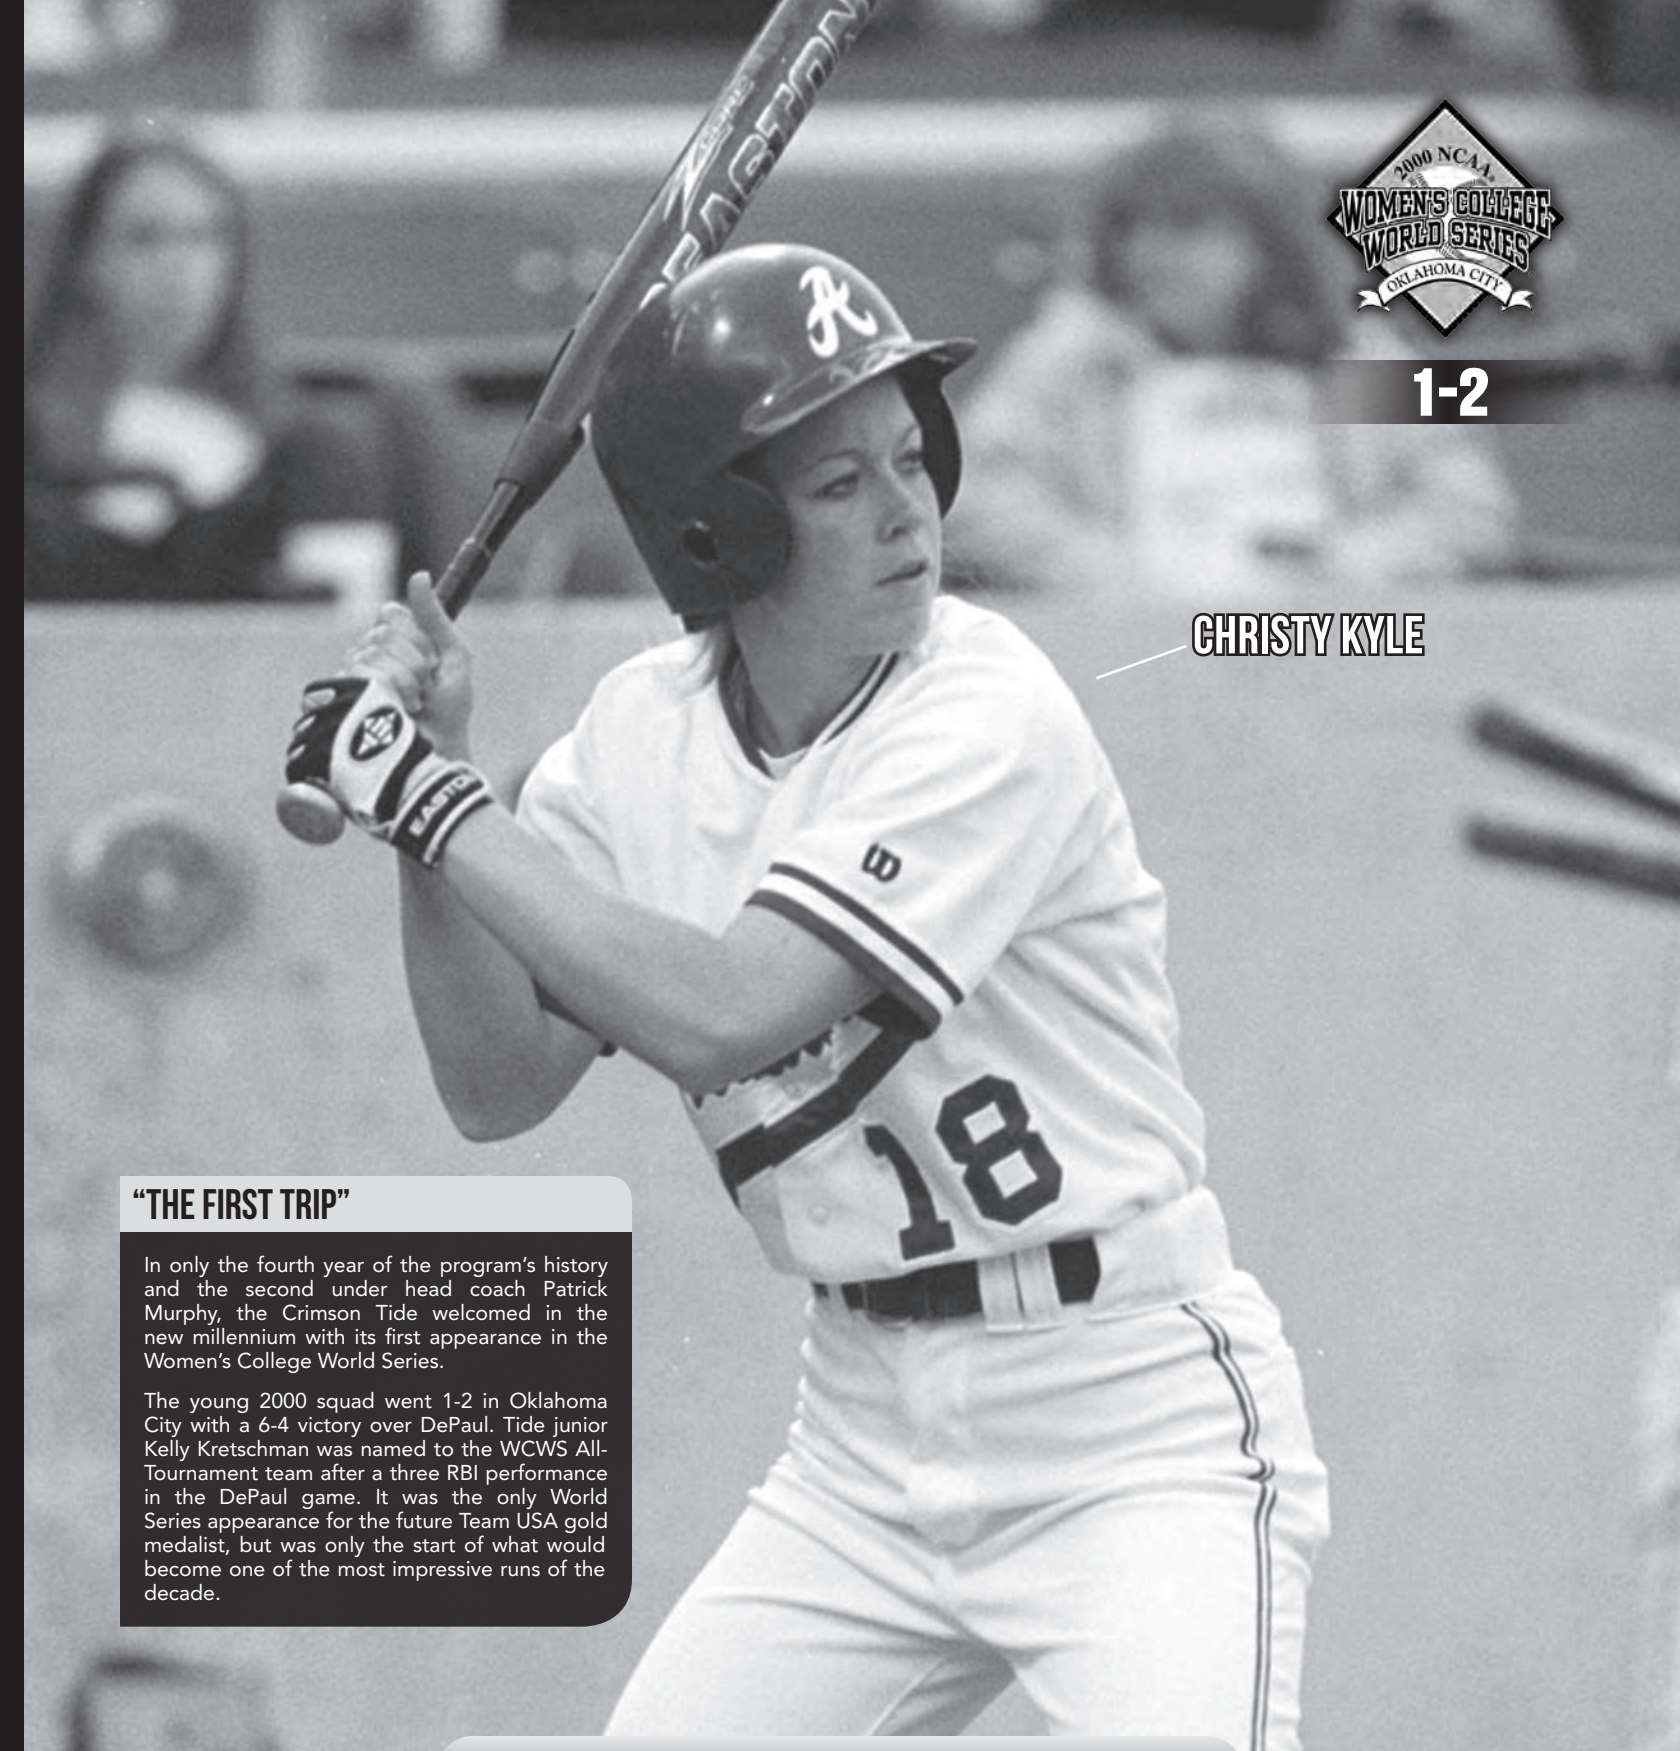

Alabama has won 10 different Southeastern Conference titles, earning the regular season trophy outright in 2006, 2010, 2011, 2012 and 2014 and five SEC Tournament titles in 1998, 2003, 2005, 2010 and 2012. In its second season of existence, Alabama claimed the tournament title in 1998, beating No. 12 LSU twice and earning a ninth-inning victory over Mississippi State. The Tide swept its way to the title and then beat No. 13 Tennessee and No. 8 Georgia to win the tournament in 2005. The Crimson Tide won the regular season title in 2006 on the strength of a 25-4 record. The Tide swept its way through the 2010 campaign by claiming both the regular season and tournament titles. In 2011, the Tide claimed its second straight regular-season title, outscoring Mississippi 36-2 in the final weekend to claim the trophy. Alabama once again won both titles in 2012, marking three-straight regular season championships. Alabama's most recent SEC title came in 2014, when the Tide won seven of its eight conference series, clinching sole possession of the title in the final weekend series at Missouri.

WOMEN'S COLLEGE WORLD SERIES

A PLACE OF TRADITION

In only its fourth season of existence, the Alabama softball team made its inaugural trip to the Women's College World Series and has not looked back since. Only two other teams have appeared in more WCWS than the Crimson Tide since 2000. Alabama has made 10 trips since its first including five in the past six years and its first national title in 2012. Alabama has been a staple at ASA Hall of Fame Stadium from the South, leading all SEC teams in appearances. The Crimson Tide has produced 12 WCWS All-Tournament Team selections, including 2012 Most Outstanding Player Jaclyn Traina. From pinch-hit grand slams to downing perennial powerhouses and dancing in the rain, the Crimson Tide has made a lasting impression in Oklahoma City.

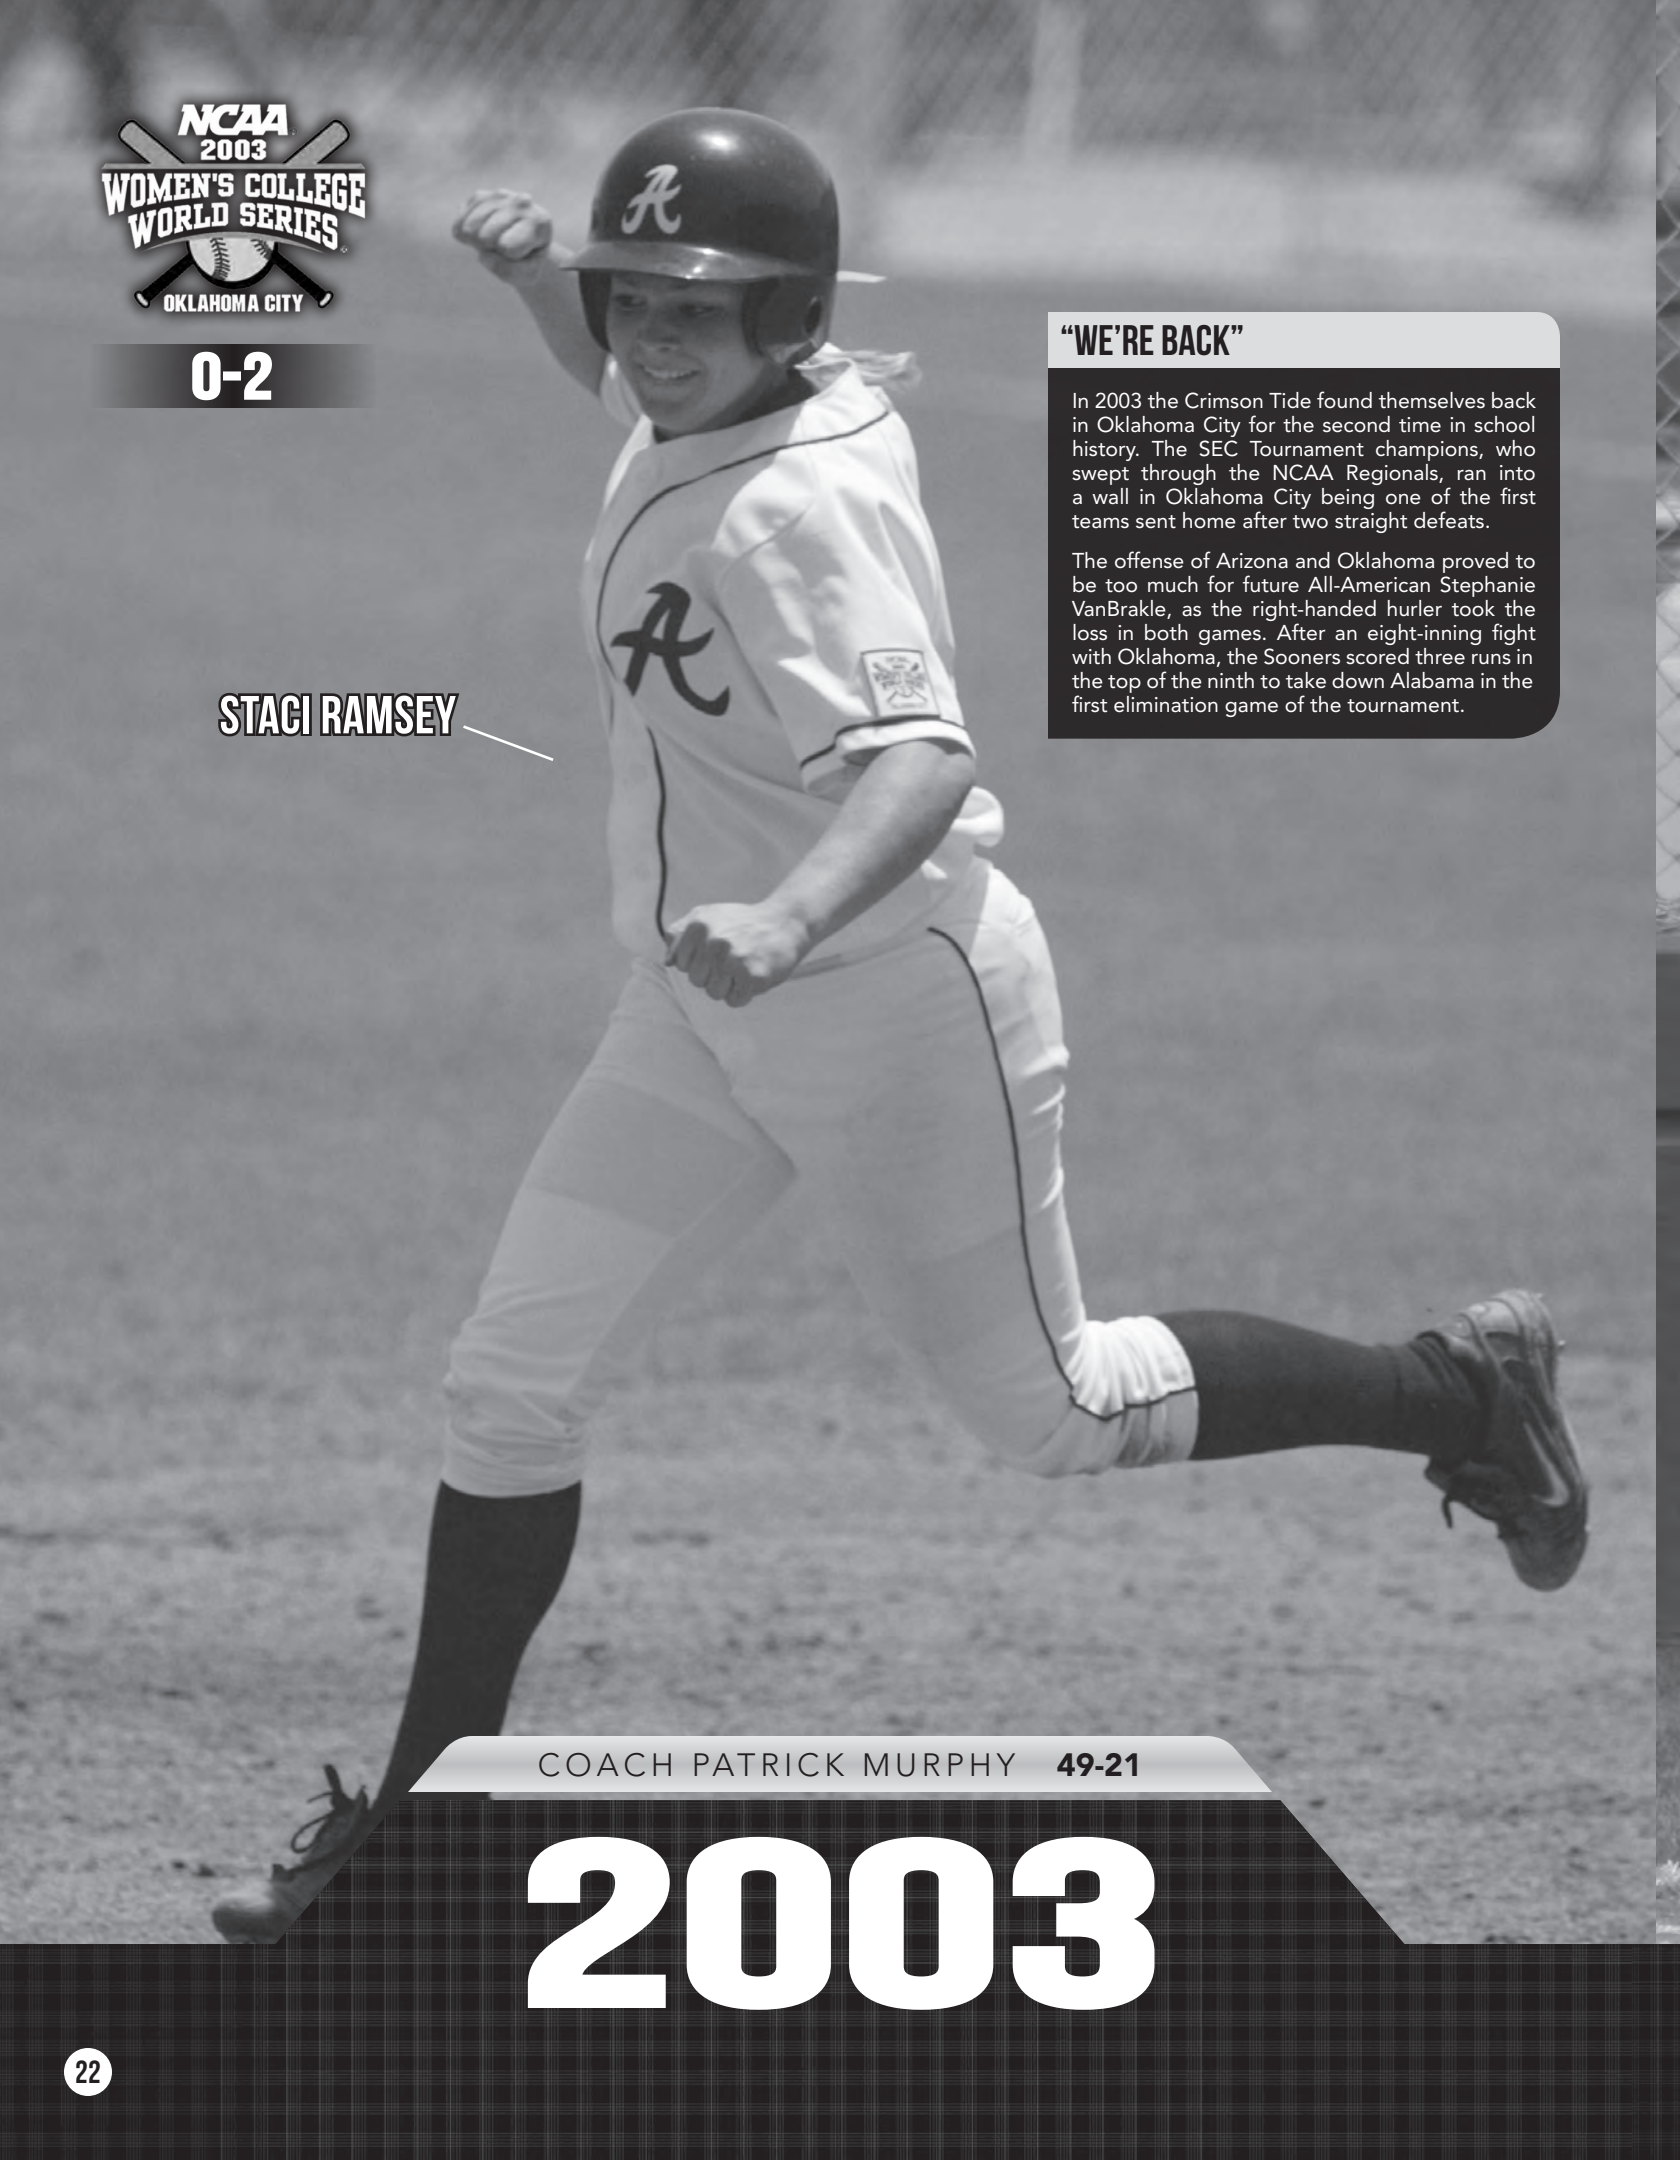

"THE FIRST TRIP"

In only the fourth year of the program's history and the second under head coach Patrick Murphy, the Crimson Tide welcomed in the new millennium with its first appearance in the Women's College World Series.

The young 2000 squad went 1-2 in Oklahoma City with a 6-4 victory over DePaul. Tide junior Kelly Kretschman was named to the WCWS All-Tournament team after a three RBI performance in the DePaul game. It was the only World Series appearance for the future Team USA gold medalist, but was only the start of what would become one of the most impressive runs of the decade.

"WE'RE BACK"

In 2003 the Crimson Tide found themselves back in Oklahoma City for the second time in school history. The SEC Tournament champions, who swept through the NCAA Regionals, ran into a wall in Oklahoma City being one of the first teams sent home after two straight defeats.

The offense of Arizona and Oklahoma proved to be too much for future All-American Stephanie VanBrakle, as the right-handed hurler took the loss in both games. After an eight-inning fight with Oklahoma, the Sooners scored three runs in the top of the ninth to take down Alabama in the first elimination game of the tournament.

"LATE-INNING HEROICS"

Alabama's third trip to Oklahoma City would come in 2005, fresh off an SEC Tournament championship. After the Tide lost to Texas in their opening-round game, Alabama once again found themselves in one of the first elimination games of the tournament.

This time the Crimson Tide came up with a different result. After battling with DePaul in a 1-1 tie for 11 innings, Alabama'a Michelle Menningmann came around to score in the bottom of the 12th for Alabama's second win in WCWS history. The Tide would be sent home the next day after a 4-0 loss to Tennessee.

"BACK-TO-BACK"

In the first game of the 2006 WCWS the Crimson Tide found itself in a dogfight right off the bat. It took 10 innings to decide the opener against No. 11 seed Northwestern. After taking a 5-4 lead into the bottom of the seventh, the Tide gave up a run and eventually fell to the Wildcats in 10 innings, 6-5.

The team did not recover and fell to Pac-10 power and No. 1 seed UCLA, 4-1, marking Alabama's second winless trip to Oklahoma City.

The 2008 Crimson Tide squad rolled into Oklahoma City as the No. 3 seed with a record of 56-6. Alabama opened the tournament as one of the hottest teams in America, but in the seventh inning Arizona State stole away the game, winning 3-1.

The Tide fought back with 5-1 and 3-1 wins over Arizona and Louisiana-Lafayette, respectively. Alabama ultimately had to settle for third place in the series, after falling again to the eventual national champion Arizona State in another 3-1 game.

"BAMA MAKES ITS MARK"

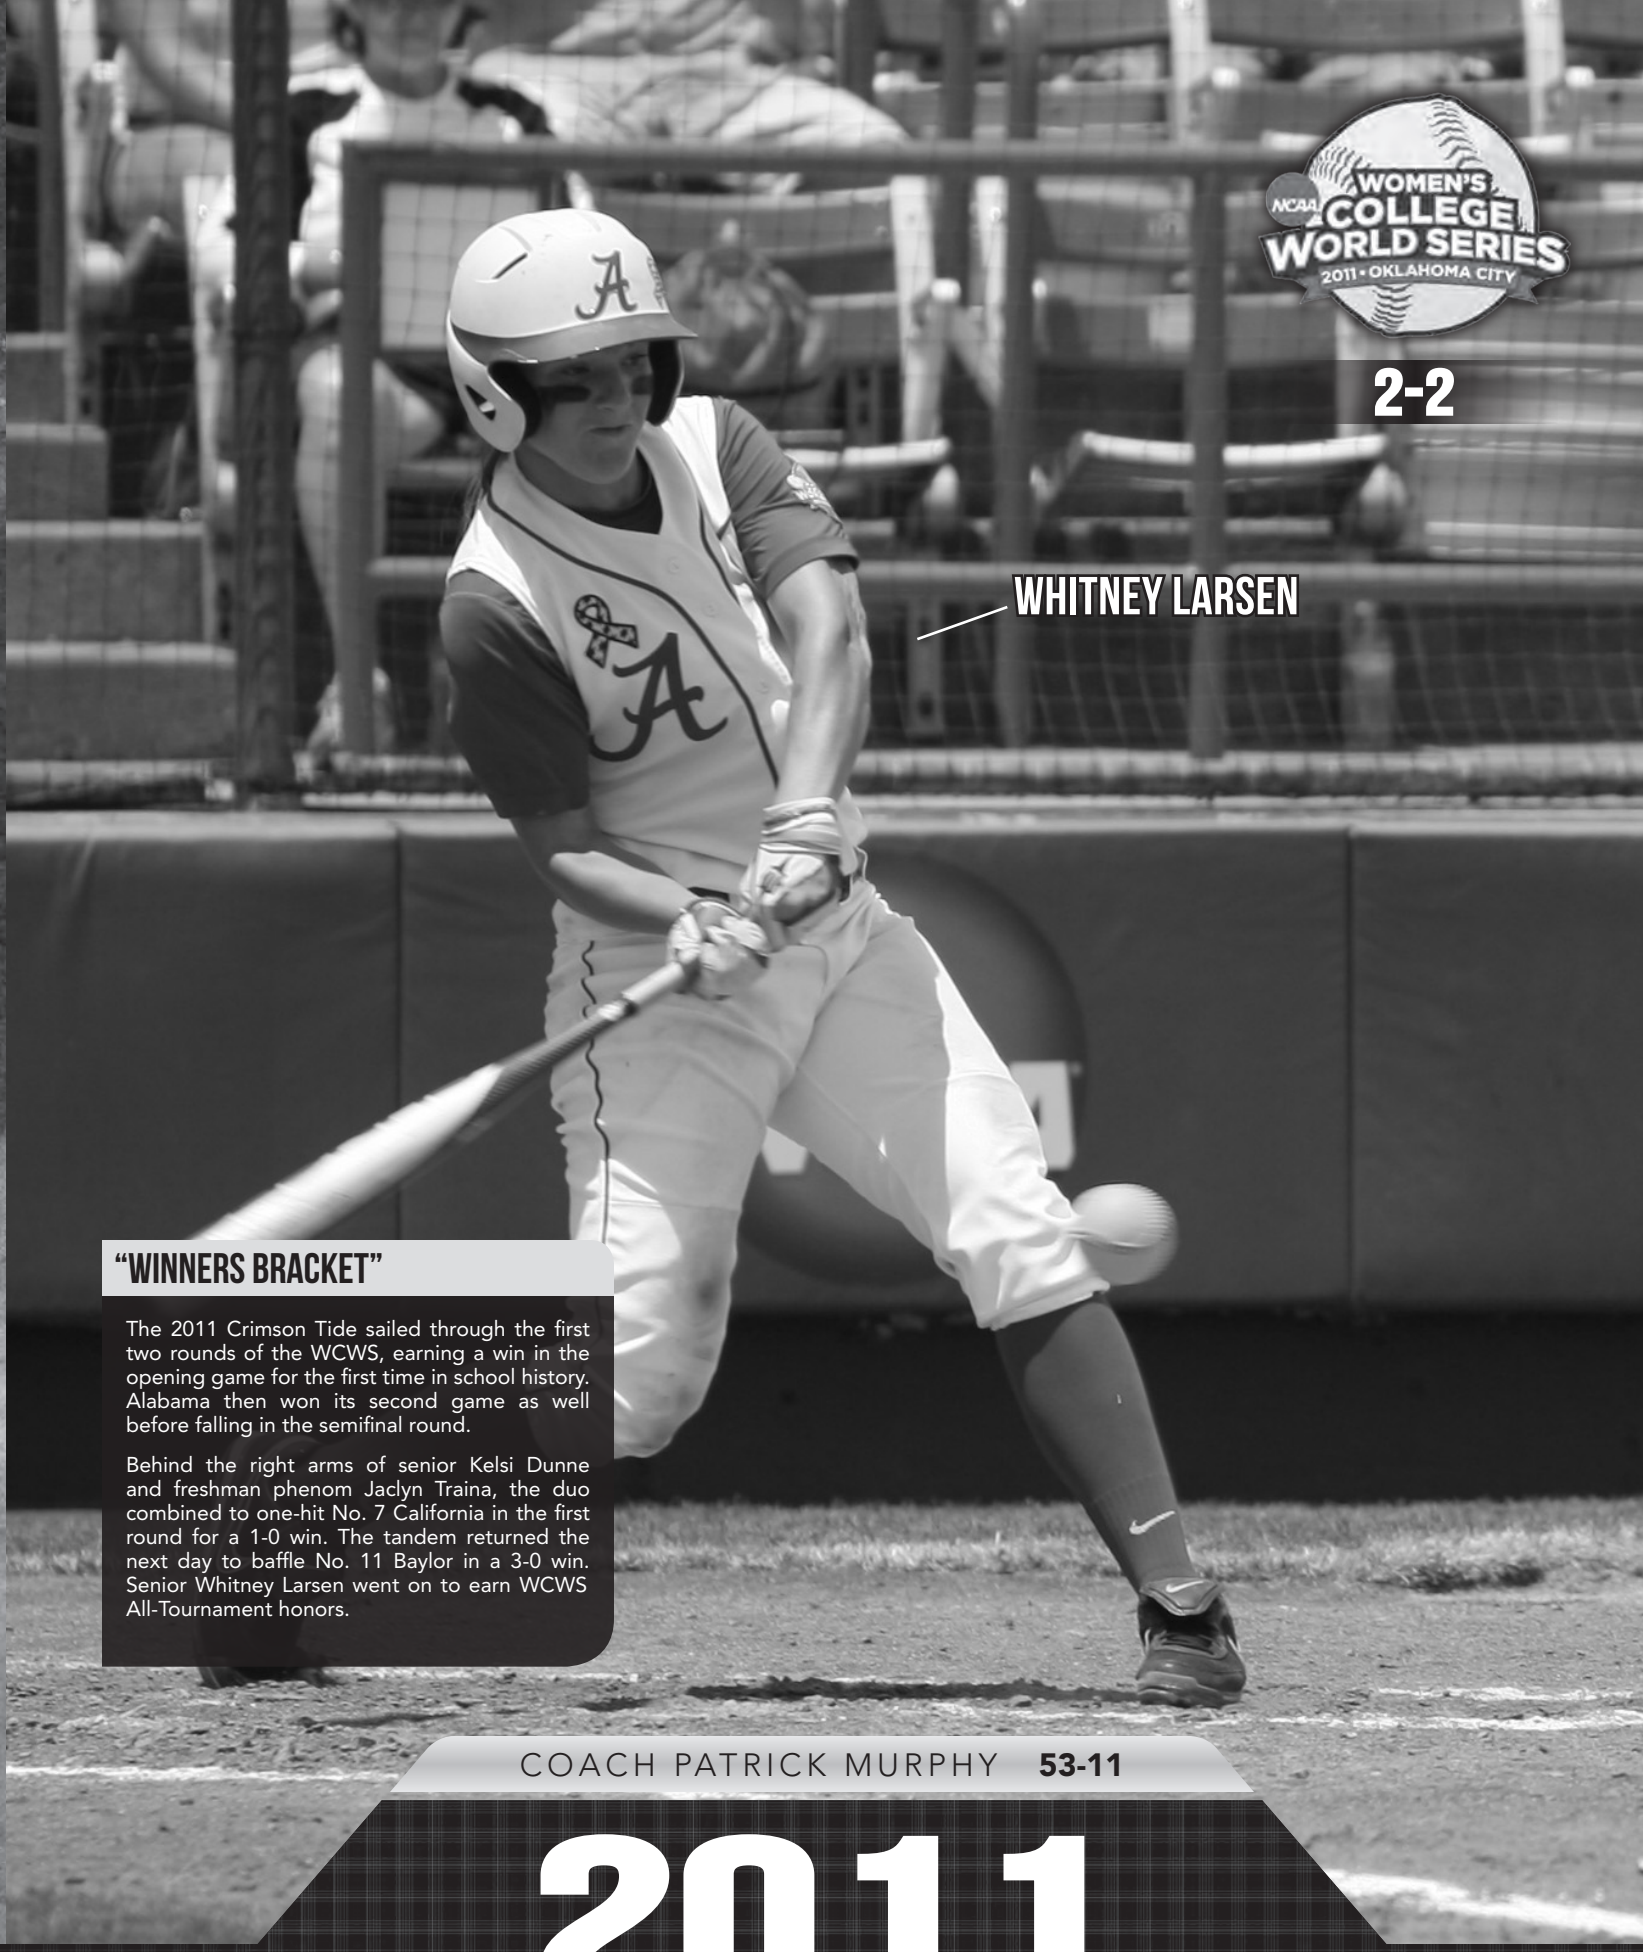

After coming out flat in a 6-1 opening game loss to Michigan, a determined Alabama team stormed back to defeat Arizona 14-0, breaking the record for the most runs scored by one team in a single game in WCWS history at that time.

In the next game, Patrick Murphy found his team down 2-0 in the bottom of the fourth to Arizona State. With the bases loaded, Murphy chose to pinch hit freshman Jazlyn Lunceford for four-time All-American Brittany Rogers. Lunceford then hit a grand slam that lifted the Tide to a 6-2 victory.

The next day after carrying a 5-2 lead into the bottom of the seventh, Alabama was beaten by a clutch grand slam. Florida eliminated the Tide from the WCWS with a heartbreaking 6-5 defeat.

"WINNERS BRACKET"

The 2011 Crimson Tide sailed through the first two rounds of the WCWS, earning a win in the opening game for the first time in school history. Alabama then won its second game as well before falling in the semifinal round.

Behind the right arms of senior Kelsi Dunne and freshman phenom Jaclyn Traina, the duo combined to one-hit No. 7 California in the first round for a 1-0 win. The tandem returned the next day to baffle No. 11 Baylor in a 3-0 win. Senior Whitney Larsen went on to earn WCWS All-Tournament honors.

"NATIONAL CHAMPS"

The 2012 Alabama Crimson Tide became the first team in Southeastern Conference history to claim the national championship in softball. The Tide accomplished the feat in its eighth trip to the WCWS.

Behind WCWS MVP Jaclyn Traina and the potent Alabama bats, the Tide sailed to its first ever championship series appearance. Against an Oklahoma team that featured the national player of the year in Keilani Ricketts, the Sooners took game one, but the Tide rallied to seize the next two victories. The championship game was one for the ages, as Alabama trailed, 3-0 early. But a light rain opened the flood gates for the Tide and the comeback was complete, with Ricketts going down on strikes for the last out.

"BACK TO OKC"

After missing out on the Women's College World Series in 2013, the Crimson Tide returned to Oklahoma City in 2014 as the No. 2 overall seed, marking the ninth WCWS trip in program history.

Alabama defeated the defending national champion Oklahoma in the opening game, 6-2, before holding off a late rally by Kentucky the next day to win, 2-0, and stay in the winners bracket. A matchup against top-seeded Oregon awaited on Sunday, as the Tide shut out the Ducks, 2-0, to advance to the WCWS championship series against SEC rival Florida. In the first ever national title matchup between two SEC teams, it was the Gators that came away victorious, defeating the Tide in two games, 5-0 and 6-3.

"TRIP NUMBER TEN"

A thrilling Super Regional round victory over Oklahoma secured Alabama's 10th trip to the Women's College World Series, where a machup against third-ranked Michigan awaited the Crimson Tide in the opening round. For the first time since 2009, Alabama fell in its opening game as the Wolverines shut out the Tide, 5-0.

Two days later, Alabama returned for an elminiation game against Oregon, defeating the Ducks 2-0 behind a great pitching performance by Alexis Osorio and a clutch two-run single by Chandler Dare. Facing another elimination game later that night against LSU, the Tide fell short as the Tigers won, 5-3, to end Alabama's season.

"FAMILIAR FOES"

A Super Regional round victory over Washington in Tuscaloosa secured Alabama's 11th trip to the Women's College World Series, as the Crimson Tide entered Oklahoma City as the No. 6 seed.

Alabama opened play with a familiar foe in third-ranked Oklahoma and the anticipated prime-time matchup didn't even make it past the second inning before heavy rain forced the game to be delayed, resuming the following night. The Sooners outlasted the Tide in an extra inning pitcher's duel, hitting a walk-off home run in the eighth. Alabama then faced conference rival LSU in an elimination game, falling behind 6-1 early but mounting a late comeback to bring the potential tying run to the plate in the seventh. The comeback fell just short however, as the Tide fell 6-4 to end its season.

2004 GOLD MEDALIST

After serving as an alternate at the 2000 Olympics in Sydney, Australia, Alabama All-American Kelly Kretschman took full advantage of her opportunity at the 2004 Olympics in Athens, Greece.

Starting in right field for Team USA, Kretschman was the only batter, for any country, to hit for the cycle – hitting at least one single, double, triple and home run – over the course of the Olympics. Her .333 batting average was eighth best in the summer games and her .714 slugging percentage ranked third among all hitters at the 2004 Olympic games.

In 2008 she earned silver at the Beijing Olympics, batting .348 with a home run and six RBI.

Alabama head coach Patrick Murphy is no stranger to international competition. In 2004 Murphy was the hitting coach for the Canadian Olympic team. He helped lead Canada to one of its most successful international outings, finishing just out of medal contention in fourth place. In 2009 he was named an assistant coach for Team USA and guided the Americans to gold at the Pan Am Qualifier. USA went 13-1 under his guidance in Venezuela. In 2010 he coached the junior national team in Bogota, Colombia.

CHICAGO BANDITS WIN 2016 NPF TITLE AT RHOADS STADIUM

Rhoads Stadium, already the premiere destination for college softball, played host to the sport's top professional athletes in August of 2016 as National Pro Fastpitch (NPF) hosted its 2016 championship series in Tuscaloosa. This marked the first time that the league's championship series was held at a collegiate park.

Alabama fans have made Rhoads Stadium a perennial NCAA attendance leader and that carried over to the 2016 NPF Championship series, which set an attendance record for the event. The fans were treated to a thrilling weekend of softball action that culminated in a winner-take-all game three in which the Chicago Bandits defeated the top-seeded USSSA Pride to hoist the Cowles Cup for the second-straight season.

PATRICK MURPHY

Head Coach — 19th Year

NORTHERN IOWA, 1988

Head Coach Patrick Murphy was one of four inductees into the NFCA Hall of Fame in 2013.

In today's world of collegiate athletics, few can claim to have been at a program since the beginning. Not many can say they were there at the origin of a program, present from the very inception to where it stands today. And certainly nobody can claim to have brought a program further, and in shorter time, than Crimson Tide head softball coach Patrick Murphy, entering his 19th season as the program's leader in 2017.

From a humble start to a national championship, Murphy has taken Alabama to the top of the college softball world. Beginning with his days as an assistant in the very first years of the Alabama softball program, Murphy has emerged as the face of a team that has grown under his leadership to become one of the most consistently successful programs in the nation.

The accomplishments are there for everyone to see. A 2012 National Championship, 11 Women's College World Series berths, five SEC regular season titles, five SEC Tournament titles and 18-straight NCAA Tournament bids are only a few of the team honors that Murphy has brought to Tuscaloosa during his tenure.

The individual honors are equally as impressive. Tide players have earned All-America honors 98 times under Murphy's watch. He has tutored 94 All-SEC performers and 88 NFCA All-Region honorees. His teams have been just as successful in the classroom, with 21 CoSIDA Academic All-America honors and 198 SEC All-Academic selections.

Even more impressively, Murphy has led the program to a surge of popularity among Tide fans. Alabama has become a regular atop the nation's attendance standings, with an ever-growing group of loyal fans who fill the stands at Rhoads Stadium throughout the season. The 2008 campaign was a sellout, setting a new benchmark in season tickets sold with more than 1,200 allocated to loyal fans. During the 2009 season, Alabama broke the single-season attendance record formerly held by Fresno State. Then, in 2010, a record total of 80,690 fans were part of the atmosphere in Tuscaloosa followed by 68,110 that took in the Tide in 2011.

Attendance eventually topped the 90,000 mark in back-to-back seasons, with 91,541 fans in 2012 and 93,332 in 2013. Alabama led the nation in attendance in 2014 as well, welcoming 83,233 fans to Rhoads Stadium. In 2015, Alabama surpassed 90,000 for the third time in four years, as 90,021 fans made for yet another electric home season in Tuscaloosa. In 2016, Alabama became the first program in NCAA history to average over 3,000 fans per game.

Every coach in the nation would do anything to achieve those numbers, which stand as a tribute to what Murphy and his teams have achieved while illustrating the willingness of Tide fans to support a program that does things right, both on and off the field.

Murphy has turned his program into a model of consistency, having guided Alabama to its first national title, 18 consecutive NCAA tournaments, and appearances in 11 Women's College World Series (2000, 2003, 2005, 2006, 2008, 2009, 2011, 2012, 2014, 2015, 2016). Since the Super Regional round was introduced to the NCAA Tournament in 2005, Alabama is the only team in the country to appear in all 12 series, winning nine of them.

Alabama's coaching staff has been named the NFCA South Region Coaching Staff of the Year 10 times (2000, 2003, 2006, 2008, 2009, 2010, 2011, 2012, 2014, 2016), including national staff of the year honors in 2012 following the team's national title.

In 2012, a magical season for the Tide culminated in defeating Oklahoma for the NCAA Championship, the first in program history and the first for any SEC team. Alabama finished 60-8 and claimed its third straight SEC regular-season championship. The Tide also won the SEC Tournament, becoming the first team ever to host the highly competitive tournament and come out champions.

Since taking over as head coach for the 1999 season, Murphy has compiled a winning record in all 18 seasons. He has won 45 or more games in each of the past 17 years, with a program-best 66 victories in 2000. Murphy also has won 20-plus games in conference play in 11 of his 18 seasons in the SEC. The 2008 campaign marked the third time he had posted 25 conference victories, matching the win totals from the 2006 and 2000 seasons.

Murphy's ability to build and maintain the impressive level of consistency places him among the nation's elite. He has a career mark of 941-255 (.787) in 18 seasons as the head coach at Alabama, including a 375-122 (.755) record in league play.

It is Murphy's desire for perfection that has guided the Tide to the upper echelon of the softball world. His hard-nosed work ethic has led the program to as high as No. 1 in the national rankings, reached for the first time in program history during the 2007 season. The 2010 squad earned the number one overall seed in the NCAA tournament after finishing the season on a 21-game winning streak, a run that saw the Head Coach Patrick Murphy hoists the national championship trophy to the Bama faithful at Hall of Fame Stadium in Oklahoma City.

Tide capture both the SEC regular season and tournament titles.

Murphy officially acquired the title of Alabama's head coach on July 12, 1998. He spent the previous two years as an assistant coach on the Crimson Tide coaching staff. In his first season as the head coach, Murphy took the team to its first NCAA Tournament en route to a 39-26 final record. The Tide lost to No. 1 UCLA and No. 23 Missouri in the Los Angeles Regional. In his second season, Murphy took the program to the next step, leading Alabama to its first-ever Women's College World Series berth after the best regular season in school history. That 2000 team won a school-record 66 games (66-14) and 25 SEC games (25-5). They finished in the top 10 for the first time in school history, after earning a 6-4 victory over DePaul for the school's first win in the WCWS.

One could almost say that Murphy was born to be on the diamond. In the third grade, the Fayette, Iowa, native put on his first baseball glove and took to the little league fields. Five years later, fresh out of the eighth grade, he made Fayette High School's varsity baseball squad and played the next five years for five different coaches.

"I always knew I wanted to be a coach," Murphy said. "My high school was such a small school that I got to play varsity baseball in eighth grade. Every year it was something different I learned, either good or bad, from each coach. My senior year, I tried to put everything together I had learned from all the different coaches and came up with a good collaborative plan."

After hanging up his spikes on his prep career, Murphy made the trip to the campus of the University of Northern Iowa where he spent the next four years. Murphy took his first job doing what he always had wanted to do, but on a smaller scale, when he became a little league head coach. Three years after taking that job, he graduated from Northern Iowa with a bachelor's degree in history education.

Even with his youngest players on that team being close to his own age at the time, Murphy concedes that his first job as a head coach was where he learned the most about himself and the game.

"Those kids were baseball nuts," he says. "They played baseball on the town tennis court because that was the only place in town that had lights. The lights would go off automatically at midnight, so that is when they knew they had to go home. They taught me so many things about the game of baseball. They played because they loved it so much."

It took only two years for Murphy to become a success as a head coach. After leading the Sumner High School boys to a 22-3 record in his first year as head coach, he guided the Aces to the state championship game the next season. Following a short stay at Sumner, Murphy continued his education as a graduate student at the University of Southwestern Louisiana (now known as Louisiana-Lafayette). While at USL, he broke into the collegiate coaching ranks as an assistant softball coach while finishing his master's degree in communications in 1992.

"The head coach at USL knew I had coached baseball in Iowa and she told me about the job," Murphy remembered. "It only paid six thousand dollars, but I was in grad school there and she asked me if I wanted another duty. That's where it all started and I just got hooked."

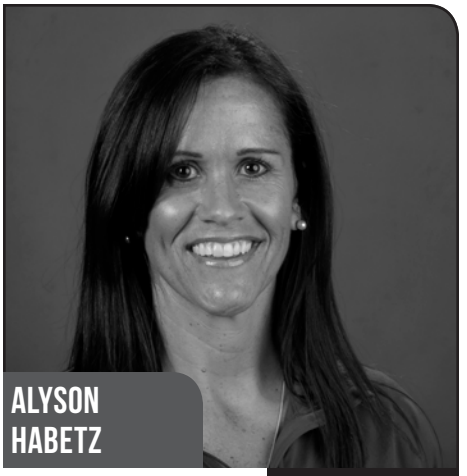

Prospering with the Ragin' Cajuns through a five-year record (1990-94) of 239-46 – including a trip to the 1993 Women's College World Series on the shoulders of former player and current Alabama associate head coach Alyson Habetz – Murphy moonlighted as head coach of the Independence Iowa high school baseball team from 1992-95. Due to the high recognition of his duties as an assistant coach at USL, along with the solid success of his duties as a high school coach, Murphy was hired as interim head coach at Northwest Missouri State in 1995. Although he was officially hired only three weeks before spring practice in 1995, Murphy led the Bearcats to a 28-20 record.

Murphy has proven himself to be a leader capable of recruiting and developing talented players who perform on the field and in the classroom. Combining that with the lure of athletic tradition at Alabama and the nation's finest facilities, the Tide softball team remains among the best in the nation.

The Alabama coaching staff was named NFCA South Region Coaching Staff of the Year for the 10th time in 2016, its fourth award in the last six years

ASSOCIATE HEAD COACH ALYSON HABETZ

ALYSON HABETZ

Associate Head Coach — 19th Year

SOUTHWESTERN LOUISIANA, 1995

If Patrick Murphy has been the face of the Alabama softball program throughout its entirety, Alyson Habetz certainly has played a huge role of her own in developing the Tide into one of the nation's elite. Currently in her 19th season on Murphy's staff in 2017, Habetz earned a promotion of her own when Murphy named her associate head coach in the summer of 2007.

Habetz brings a wealth of softball and baseball knowledge to the Crimson Tide softball staff. She joined on Sept. 21, 1998, in the program's second year. During her tenure, Habetz has helped Murphy lead the Tide to 11 Women's College World Series appearances, its first national championship and five regular season SEC titles, including three in a row.

Habetz's primary duties include outfield play and team offense. She also contributes significantly to the evaluation of recruits.

"Alyson is a great role model for our players and future recruits," Murphy says. "She is one of the most outstanding people I have met. She was a dream to coach and she is even better to coach with. I think she's the best assistant coach in the country. She has turned down several head coaching jobs already and she keeps getting better and better each year."

Habetz began her stint at Alabama following a four-year career in women's professional baseball. She joined the pitching rotation with the Colorado Silver Bullets women's professional baseball team in 1995 following her collegiate playing career. Habetz played with the Silver Bullets for three years before joining the Long Beach Aces of the now defunct women's professional baseball league, as a first baseman and pitcher in 1998.

After her first season with the Silver Bullets, Habetz made the trip to Cooperstown, N.Y., for the opening of a section in the National Baseball Hall of Fame recognizing the Colorado Silver Bullets team. Her good friend and favorite sports hero Tommy Lasorda was on hand for the ceremony.

After spending two years fighting the issue in the state courts, Habetz became the first female in the state of Louisiana to play high school baseball, garnering all-district honors as a first baseman and pitcher at Notre Dame High School (in Crowley, La.) while earning all-state honors as a basketball player.

Habetz also excelled in the classroom, representing the NDHS class of 1990 as its salutatorian before earning an academic scholarship to the University of Southwestern Louisiana (now the University of Louisiana at Lafayette), where she had earned a basketball scholarship.

While displaying her talents as a basketball player at USL, Habetz was a member of the softball team, earning third team All-America, All-South Region, All-Louisiana and Academic All-America honors with the Ragin' Cajuns. While at USL, she played for a staff that included Murphy, who was an assistant coach in Lafayette.

Habetz helped lead the Cajuns to an appearance in the 1993 Women's College World Series. As a member of the basketball team, Habetz etched her name in the record books, settling in at No. 7 all-time on the career scoring list en route to earning membership in the 1,000-point club. She graduated with a bachelor's degree in communications in 1995.

Habetz was a 2006 inductee into the Louisiana High School Coaches Association Hall of Fame. She also is enshrined in the University of Louisiana at Lafayette's Sports Hall of Fame, where she was inducted in 2003.

STEPHANIE VANBRAKLE PROTHRO

Assistant Coach — 6th Year

ALABAMA, 2007

Stephanie VanBrakle Prothro is in her sixth season at the University of Alabama as the team's pitching coach in 2017.

In her first season guiding the Alabama pitching staff, she helped the Crimson Tide win the program's first national championship. Behind the right arm of Jaclyn Traina, the 2012 team rolled through the postseason, winning the Southeastern Conference regular-season title for the third straight year and then claiming the SEC Tournament title before advancing through the NCAA Regional and Super Regional rounds and finally capturing the coveted national championship.

VanBrakle Prothro was instrumental in the development of Traina. In her first season as the ace of the staff, Traina was named an NFCA first team All-American and the SEC Pitcher of the Year. Traina led the nation with a school record 42 wins and struck out 361 batters, another Tide all-time best. The following season in 2013, Traina again earned NFCA and Easton All-America honors.

In 2015, VanBrakle Prothro oversaw a pitching staff that included SEC Freshman of the Year Alexis Osorio, a First Team All-American and top three finalists for the NFCA Freshman of the Year award. Sophomore Sydney Littlejohn also threw a pair of perfect games, becoming the first Tide pitcher to throw a perfect game since VanBrakle did so in 2006.

VanBrakle Prothro was named Alabama's pitching coach on July 5, 2011, returning to Tuscaloosa after spending one season as the head coach at Samford.

"We are very excited to have Stephanie as our first former athlete to join the coaching staff," said Tide head coach Patrick Murphy after hiring VanBrakle Prothro. "She led us to new heights as a player and know she can do the same thing as a coach."

Prior to serving as Samford's head coach, she spent the previous two years as the head coach at Birmingham-Southern College. She posted a record of 57-14 in her two seasons with the Panthers, for an impressive .803 winning percentage.

In her first season as a head coach in 2009, VanBrakle Prothro led the Panthers to a 32-5 record. The team broke 13 program records, including the mark for wins in a season. Her first team posted a .364 team batting average and 1.19 ERA. VanBrakle Prothro's 2010 team then finished with a record of 25-9 overall and 12-4 in the Southern Collegiate Athletic Conference.

Prior to becoming head coach at Birmingham-Southern, VanBrakle Prothro spent the 2008 season as an assistant coach on the BSC staff. That season, the Panthers earned a 32-28 record for the first 30-win season in program history. She also helped coach four All-Big South Conference players and two CoSIDA Academic All-District honorees.

VanBrakle Prothro played professionally in the National Pro Fastpitch (NPF) league for the Philadelphia Force prior to being hired at Birmingham-Southern. She also served as a 2007 student assistant coach at her alma mater, with the Tide going 55-10 during that season.

During her stellar career at Alabama from 2003 to 2006, VanBrakle Prothro helped the Crimson Tide win its first Southeastern Conference regular-season title in 2006 plus SEC Tournament championships in 2003 and 2005. She earned SEC Tournament MVP honors in 2005 and was named SEC Pitcher of the Year in 2006.

VanBrakle Prothro helped her team make NCAA Regional and Super Regional appearances during all four of her years at Alabama, as well as three NCAA College World Series appearances (2003, 2005, 2006).

A native of Chambersburg, Pa., VanBrakle was named a NFCA second team All-American in 2005 and 2006. She was named SEC Pitcher of the Year and was one of 10 finalists for the Collegiate Player of the Year as a senior in 2006. She also was named to the SEC Honor Roll and the Academic All-SEC Team all four of her years at Alabama.

VanBrakle Prothro's other playing honors included 2003 Region VIII Tournament MVP, NFCA All-South Region in 2003, 2005 and 2006, and NFCA All-American in 2005 and 2006. She also earned all-conference honors each of her four years at Alabama and was named the 2003 SEC Freshman of the Year.

VanBrakle Prothro earned a Bachelor of Science degree in physical education from Alabama in 2007. Vanbrakle Prothro and her husband, Quintin, were married in 2016.

KATE HARRIS

Director of Operations — 7th Year

CREIGHTON, 2007

Kate Harris enters her seventh season as Alabama softball's first full-time director of operations.

"We are very excited to have Kate Harris on our staff," Head Coach Patrick Murphy said. "I have always said the best quote to live by is to surround yourself with good people and good things will happen. Kate is a great person who came highly recommended."

Harris coordinates all team travel, including processing expense reports, game contacts, monitors monthly financial budgets and reconciles Pcard purchases for sport oversight and the business office. She also organizes and facilitates all official and unofficial recruiting visits and handles each visiting team's needs throughout the fall and spring seasons. Harris monitors all activities for compliance with the University according to NCAA and SEC guidelines and logs weekly countable athletically related activities. She serves as the camp director for Patrick Murphy Softball School Summer camps and assists with other clinics throughout the fall and winter. Harris is the program's liaison with the official booster club of Alabama Softball, the Bama Softball Walk-off Club and helps tremendously with various fundraising projects. She is also very active in alumni affairs, striving to maintain strong relationships and support with former Alabama student-athletes and staff.

Harris joined the Crimson Tide staff after serving as an assistant softball coach at her alma mater, Creighton. For two seasons, the Waterloo, Iowa, native worked with the outfielders and hitters in addition to her role with Bluejay softball camps. In her two seasons at Creighton, she helped guide the Bluejays to back-to-back Missouri Valley Conference regular-season championships and two NCAA regional appearances.

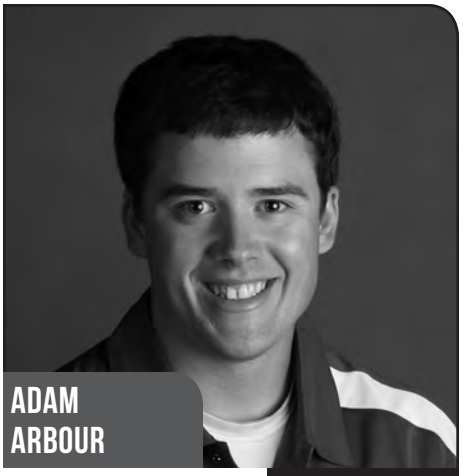

Harris was a Bluejay outfielder from 2004-07, appearing in 122 games. She was a member of three NCAA Tournament teams, helping the Jays win the MVC tournament in 2004, 2005 and 2007. Creighton also won the 2007 MVC regular-season championship with Harris as a senior leader. She received Creighton softball's Most Inspirational Award following her sophomore, junior and senior seasons.

Before returning to Creighton, Harris taught at Millard West High School in Omaha, Neb., while also coaching softball and basketball at Millard West.

She graduated from Creighton in 2007, with a bachelor's degree in sociology and is currently pursuing a Master's of Science degree in Human Environmental Sciences with a graduate certification in conflict management, negotiation and mediation from The University of Alabama.

Harris' grandfather Tom Lind played basketball at the University of Iowa while her sister Molly played softball on the 1999 DePaul team that reached the Women's College World Series.

Harris and her husband, Korey, reside in Tuscaloosa, Ala., along with their dog, Kirby. Korey played collegiate soccer at Creighton University (Cullman High School) and later received a bachelor's degree in communications and information sciences from The University of Alabama. Korey is currently pursuing a Doctorate of Chiropractic at Life University in Marietta, Georgia.

ADAM ARBOUR

Volunteer Assistant — 5th Year

MICHIGAN, 2011

Adam Arbor is in his fifth year as a volunteer assistant coach at Alabama, serving in that capacity from 2012-14 before returning in 2016 after a one-year stint at the University of Iowa.

In his first season at the Capstone, Arbour helped the Crimson Tide win the first national championship in program history. He and the rest of the Alabama coaching staff were named 2012 NFCA National Coaching Staff of the Year and again earned similar recognition in 2014 and 2016 as the NFCA South Region Coaching Staff of the Year.

"We are very fortunate to have Adam on our staff," Murphy says. "We respect coach Carol Hutchins and her staff at Michigan very much and try to emulate their program in many ways. We all look forward to working further with Adam."

Arbour, an Ann Arbor native, is a 2011 graduate of the University of Michigan where he was a three-year member of the Michigan baseball team (2007-09). Over that span the Wolverines won two Big Ten championships (2007-08) and an NCAA regional title in 2007.

"Coach Murphy has established an amazing softball culture here in Tuscaloosa and I am very thankful that he asked me to jump on board," says Arbour. "Coach Murphy, Alyson Habetz, and Stephanie VanBrakle are some of the best minds in the game and I look forward to continue learning from them and adding value to this program."

Arbour's softball experience comes from his time serving as a student manager for three seasons. Over that span, the Wolverines won three Big Ten titles, two NCAA regional championships and made an appearance at the 2009 Women's College World Series.

Arbour graduated from Michigan in 2011 with a bacherlor's degree in physical education. He previously coached ASA-level teams from 16 and under up to gold level. Arbour comes from athletic family that includes parents Ed (baseball) and Julie (volleyball) who were student-athletes at Eastern Michigan. His father also played baseball at Washtenaw Community College while an uncle, Dan, played football at Western Michigan.

2016 REVIEW

Alabama finished the season ranked No. 6 in the USA Today/NFCA poll and No. 7 the ESPN.com/ USA Softball poll. The Tide have finished the season ranked in the Top 10 every year since 2005.

Alabama earned its 1,000th program victory on April 5, 2016 in Tuscaloosa, becoming the first among the SEC programs that started during the league's inagural 1997 season to reach the 1,000-win mark. Over 20 seasons, the Crimson Tide is 1,019-302 (.771).

The Tide made its 18th-consecutive NCAA Tournament appearance in 2016, sweeping its games at the Tuscaloosa Regional to stretch its Regional winning streak to 31-straight games. Alabama went on to defeat Washington in its 12th-straight Super Regional appearance, the longest streak of any team in the country.

Haylie McCleney earned a slew of honors in her senior season, both on and off the field. For the second-consecutive season, she was named the CoSIDA Academic All-American of the Year for Division I softball. She also won the Senior CLASS Award and the NCAA Top 10 award along with NFCA First Team All-America honors.

Alabama's coaching staff was named the NFCA South Region Coaching Staff of the Year for the 10th time in program history. This is the third award for the current iteration of this staff, previously winning in 2012 and 2014.

Shelley Laird threw a school-record 118 complete games over her four-year career, though her longest outing of 13.0 innings, another school record, was surprisingly not a complete game. Alabama battled Arkansas for 19 innings on March 21, 1999 on the back end of a doubleheader, eventually winning 12-7

Alabama drove in a school-record 20 RBIs in a 21-1 victory over McNeese State on Feb. 13, 2008. Sophomore Charlotte Morgan accounted for a team-leading eight of those 20 RBIs, which came off two doubles and a grand slam.

Ashley Holcombe made every runner think twice about straying too far away from the bases, as she picked off a school-record 26 batters during her four-year career, more than twice as many as the next-highest total. She set a single-season record with eight runners picked off as a junior in 2008 before besting her own mark with 10 as a senior in 2009.
